What this new "Security Plan" will do for him

The Mutual Life of Canada's "Security Plan" enables you to start your child's insurance at a very early age, and at a low cost.

Protection starts at $100 at birth, increasing annually to $1,000, at age 9 and grading up to $5,000, at age 20. If money is required for educational purposes when the child reaches university age, the policy may be surrendered for its cash value, otherwise it may be continued at the very low premium rate until age 60 or 65 when a retirement income is available. The Cash Value increases yearly, and dividends are paid annually as declared.

Increases in Milk, Cream Production from Interior Seen by Dairy Officials

Increases in milk and cream production from the Interior areas served by the Co-operative Creamery organization are forecast by most members of the Board of Directors. At a recent meeting in Vernon, the directors reviewed trends in the dairy and milk business and also authorized a number of changes and an expansion program. Attending were E. W. Stewart and I. H. Wright, of Salmon Arm; S. E. Halksworth, Grindrod; D. Jones, Enderby; A. Buysse and H. D. McCallan, Armstrong; J. R. Freeze, Salmon River, and Reg. Saunders, Lumby.

The discussion on future trends in dairying was touched off by Mr. Buysse, who said that too many cows were being sold.

A sharp difference of opinion was expressed by Mr. McCallan. He said that two carloads of Jersey purebreds were being shipped from Armstrong that week. Prices paid farmers were from $200 to $225 per head. The aggregate income from dairy stock is hundreds of thousands of dollars for Interior farmers each year.

"The dairy farmer has to sell some stock each year or he will be overworked. Selling cattle is a profitable part of the business, especially if the farmer uses purebred animals," he declared.

Mr. Halksworth, president of the board, claimed that dairying is becoming much more attractive. "A good many are going back into cows. The bush work is starting to slow down and the cow will bring in a steady monthly income," he said.

This view was agreed to by E. W. Stewart, of Salmon Arm, who said one of the leading fruit growers in the Salmon Arm district had seen him this week. The fruit business in that area had a bad setback this year. This man wanted some cows because they were a dependable source of steady cash income.

J. R. Freeze, vice-president, was very definitely of the opinion that dairy production would increase. "The trend is up and not down," he declared. Fruit and vegetable growing are more and more of a gamble. A man may hit it rich and again he may not. The cow is the only thing he can be sure of to get steady money out of at all times," Mr. Freeze said.

Bearing out the general opinion of the meeting are the figures of production from the creamery. An increase in butter-making is taking place at all points. Every week since the middle of August the output of the three buttermaking plants has been higher than the corresponding weeks of last year.

This is the result of fine pasture conditions, Ivan Wright of Salmon Arm, believed. He considered that 70 cents a pound for cream was quite an inducement, too. Several of the directors recalled when cream was worth 15 cents to 20 cents and then looked pretty good because there was nothing else a man could get a dollar from so steadily.

An eight gallon can of cream testing 30 percent is now worth almost $20. It doesn't take very many fresh cows to fill a can.

The directors heard a report from the general manager of the Northern Dairy Pool, R. Stanley, about skim milk. He spent a full day at the creameries in Enderby and Salmon Arm. He said skim milk is $1 per 10 gallons. This means a farmer who feeds it should credit his cows with an extra 20 cents to 25 cents per pound for each pound of butterfat.

"I know the farmers don't think so but it is a fact nevertheless," Mr. Stanley said, referring to the high value of skim milk.

An analysis of the Association's business was studied by the directors. It looked very encouraging. The ice cream sales will reach almost to 60,000 gallons for the year, according to a report of R. H. Cull, sales manager. The 1949 target is 100,000 gallons. Plans were considered for enlarging the territory served.

There have been many requests for the Association's product from the Kamloops and Ashcroft areas. In order to serve the people there with ice cream made in Vernon, a further expansion will be needed. Plans for this have passed the blue print stages.

Encouraging Bonus

W. C. Cameron reported that milk producers in another area wanted to supply the Association. A bonus of 21 cents per 100 pounds was encouraging production and attracting milk producers. At this time each year there is a great milk shortage throughout the south of the Valley.

Mr. Cameron, who is now looking after sales promotion, advocated the purchase of a panel delivery truck. The target in sales of farm supplies for 1949 has not yet been set, but it will probably be high, however, as many members are now getting rural electrification benefits. This is very gratifying to the directors of the Creamery Association who initiated the first rural electrification committee in B.C.

Gus Arndt, of Kelowna, has been appointed superintendent of the Vernon plant. Mr. Arndt has European dairy technical training. He worked for the Kelowna Creamery for 19 years and is believed to have contributed much to the success of it. He and his family are members of the Lutheran Church and he was a director of the Kelowna Lions Club. He is now a member of the Vernon Club. In Kelowna Mr. Arndt was also a director of the Junior Chamber of Commerce.

Starting in November, the Association will be distributors for the Interior of Delnor Frosted Foods. H. B. Pearson, manager of the Delnor Company in New Westminster, has arranged to ship carloads of frozen foods to Vernon. The creamery here will provide the service of unloading the cars and putting the frozen foods in storage. The creamery will also deliver to retail food stores in the Okanagan Valley and at Kamloops.

The Delnor Company are sending Ray McDonnell to Vernon. He will be stationed here for several months and his duties will be to call on all food stores between Salmon Arm and Penticton to introduce the new line the creamery is handling. Mr. McDonnell was to arrive in Vernon on Monday.

The Creamery Association is the only concern able to handle frozen foods. No other organization has a large enough low temperature storage and truck. The refrigerated truck operated by the Creamery is the biggest one in B.C. It can carry a load of 1,000 gallons of ice cream at a temperature of six degrees below zero. The possession of this fine equipment was mainly responsible for opening up a new source of income for the dairy farmers here.

The setting rate for cream to all patrons in September was 70 cents per pound B.F. To this should be added the value of their skim milk considered to be 20 cents per pound butterfat under present conditions. The high prices being paid for cream in recent months have attracted many new shippers to the co-operative organization. Fluid milk producers are receiving $1.07 per pound B.F. This includes the bonus of 21 cents per 100 pounds recently paid and six and a half cents for each one-tenth of one percent on test.

When the city of Enderby was recently faced with no pasteurized milk the Association came to their rescue. This was at the request of the mayor and chairman of the Enderby Board of Health. Enderby is now getting all its pasteurized milk from Vernon. This is a temporary measure until the new pasteurizing plant can be installed in Enderby.

C. Mitchell, of the De Laval Company, dairy plant engineer, is now in Vernon in regard to equipment for the Enderby plant and concerning other plans to improve the income of the dairy industry.

Six Below Zero Truck

This vehicle, which is the largest refrigerated truck operated in British Columbia, is owned by the Co-operative Creamery Association. The use of this low temperature equipment has enabled the distribution of frozen foods to be centred in Vernon for the whole of the Interior. A second truck has now been placed on order by the association.

Westwold School District Names New Representative

WESTWOLD, Oct. 19.—The annual school meeting was held in the old schoolhouse on Saturday. Lloyd Toderick was elected as the representative of the Westwold-Adelphi School Attendance Area for the ensuing year. The meeting was well attended and a lively discussion of local school affairs was conducted.

A request is being sent to Inspector McArthur to inspect the local buildings and grounds and provide a written report for the new representative. Then a meeting is to be called at which the chairman and members of the school board will be asked to consider the report of the inspector with a view to having some objectionable conditions remedied. William Malcolm was chairman of the meeting.

The entire teaching staff attended the Central Mainline District Teachers' Convention held in Kamloops on Thursday and Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Evander McLeod were weekend visitors to Kamloops and Tranquille where they visited Mrs. Jack McLeod.

Mr. and Mrs. Sydney Culling left for Penticton on Saturday where they will spend a few days' holiday.

Mr. and Mrs. Ted Lenzen, of Vernon, spent the weekend with Mr. and Mrs. Ted Elliott. Ted Lenzen, Ted Elliott and Alex Pringle spent most of Sunday on a moose hunt in the Red Lake district.

The Baby Clinic was held last Thursday afternoon. This clinic is held on the second Thursday of each month. The attendance last week was quite gratifying. Miss Dunn is the nurse in charge. The project is sponsored by the local Women's Institute.

A very enjoyable party was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Rod Jones last Friday evening. The women of the W.I. welcomed Mrs. W. E. Robinson and Mrs. Collier to the district and presented each with a suitable corsage. Games, contests, and of course refreshments were heartily enjoyed. There were about 25 ladies present.

Pioneer Resident of Okanagan Landing Buried Here Tuesday

OKANAGAN LANDING, Oct. 18.—Residents of Okanagan Landing deeply mourn the death of Gedrie Charles Gray, who died at his residence here on Saturday, aged 66 years.

Mr. Gray is a pioneer resident of the "Landing," having resided here since 1921.

Born in Wimbeldon, England, on December 20, 1881, he, with his wife and son, Charlie, came to Canada in 1910, settling in Little Current, Manitoulin Island, remaining there until 1913, when they moved to Victoria, coming to Okanagan Landing in 1921. They have resided here ever since.

Mr. Gray was a sign-writer, painter and paperhanger. In the fall of 1943 he sustained a bad accident when he fell from a scaffold while at work in Vernon. Since that time he has been in poor health.

Surviving is his widow, Emily; one daughter, Evelyn, both of Okanagan Landing; and one son, Bill, Charles Gray, R.C.M.P., and two grandchildren, of Calgary; as well as three sisters and three brothers in England.

Funeral services were conducted by Rev. L. A. C. Smith from All Saints' Anglican Church on Tuesday afternoon. Committal was in Vernon Cemetery.

City Council heard a connection to his property located at the end of Hankey Street, on which he alleges he has paid taxes for 50 years. The well water now being used has a "strange flavor," he stated; but Alderman E. B. Cousins declared this water has been tested and is quite good. However, Mr. Duncan will be interviewed further, as to his intentions regarding further development of the property in question.

fixed and he cannot expect to get more should there be an unforeseen rise in prices. The grower will increase his take only in proportion as more apples are sold as fresh fruit, and less as processed.

It is obviously of great importance to British Columbia to assure itself that sacrifice prices will not obtain on the government subsidized apples to a point where western apples could be excluded from Eastern markets, due to "heavy fire sales" of the Nova Scotian supported produce. In this connection an inquiry to the Hon. J. C. Taggart, chairman of the Agricultural Prices Support Board, as to who controlled the selling price, was replied to as follows:

"Selling price in Nova Scotia subject our approval. While all details not settled, it is expected these prices will be about the same as last year."

If Mr. Taggart's announced expectation is realized, namely, "at last year's prices," British Columbia will not have much occasion for worry.

There are one or two features of this deal which are still obscure and B.C. Tree Fruits is in constant communication with Ottawa in regard to it.

It may be said that proposals on behalf of British Columbia have been submitted to Ottawa, after consultation with the governors of B.C. Tree Fruits Ltd., and the executive of the B.C.F.G.A. We are not in a position to give a detailed statement as to this until these matters have been considered by the government authorities, except to say that it concerns the underwriting of small sizes.

Stagettes Will Equip Ward For Infants in New Hospital

At the first Fall meeting of the Vernon Stagette Club, which was held recently, the following were elected into office for the 1948-1949 year:

President, Miss Mildred Anderson; immediate past president, Miss Rhoda Foster; vice-president, Miss Joan Yuill; secretary, Miss Gloria MacKay; treasurer, Miss Agnes Harvie; social, Miss Margaret Moore; membership, Miss Isabel Burris; press and Stagette, Miss Kay Dunn.

The club plans a very active year. It was decided at this meeting that the annual Stagette bazaar and tea will be held on November 13 at the Burns Hall.

The club's main objective for this season will be the furnishing of a six-bed infants' ward in the new Vernon Jubilee Hospital. In this connection it will be the club's responsibility to look after the upkeep of the furnishings for this ward in future years.

A Friendly Chat

There is a difference between women in business, and women knowing how to conduct their own business. Presumably the first mentioned know all about the latter. But there is a mass of women who are unknowledgeable in the matter of looking after business matters as they concern themselves as a member of the family. There is nothing unwomanly in learning about safeguards in the tremendous task of living, and many women do not put into practice basic business principles.

It is a long time since the woman, travelling alone, carried her valuables and money in a little bag hung around her neck, tucked into her camisole. This is what was worn in the days when women did just that. I don't suppose they carry their valuables in that way today. I only know I don't. I haven't any jewelry and very little money, and what I have, I use to buy travellers' cheques on the rare occasions when I take a holiday.

Years ago the stocking was referred to as the "First National Bank." Nylons would prohibit the practice of carrying valuables in this way! But it is surprising, all the same, how many otherwise intelligent women carry a hundred dollars or more in their purse when starting on a vacation.

The happiest way to start a holiday is to buy your ticket for train or plane, and your berth, if necessary, for both journeys. Keep them all in the envelope provided. Keep a little cash on hand for pocket money, and buy travellers' cheques with the rest. These can be cashed anywhere at any time, and all that is required is for the person cashing them, to see you sign them, the signature corresponding to that on the top left-hand corner. It is a good thing to buy them in small denominations, say $10 or $20. It only takes five minutes and a few cents to arrange this at the bank, and will give you real security.

All of which reminds me of two lads about 17 or so, who, unfortunately for us, had the upper berth when we were on our Thanksgiving holiday. I had nicely got off to sleep when they arrived. In penetrating whispers they wondered where to put their currency for the night, (which they confided to each other was quite considerable). They settled on the toe of their left shoes.

Many women have Victory bonds.

City High School Paper Praised In Adjudication

"The Look-out," the publication of the Revelstoke High School, has won the new trophy presented for annual competition for the most marked improvement over previous yearbooks, submitted by B.C. high schools. The Vancouver Daily Province's original Challenge Shield is now reserved for the annuals of the larger schools and was won this year by Burnaby South's "Twenty-five Years of Progress."

The Vernon High School Annual, edited by Tommy Davis, was very favorably adjudicated. Mrs. F. C. Tullach was staff sponsor for the publication. The remarks of the judges in detail were as follows:

"Previous editors at this school have established a high standard and those at the helm this year have more than justified the heritage. This is a superior annual in all respects. Good feeling of school spirit throughout; copy is well edited and make-up pleasing. Treatment of grad picture pages interesting. Hand drawn adds a credit to the artist and one or two of the cartoons in the editorial section suggest competition for Thurber! Cuts are a trifle too grey—victims of the method of reproduction used."

The yearbook, dedicated to "the Future" and those students who "have yet to talk within the halls of Vernon High School," was designed to represent the story of the school in the past year as told by the "spirit" behind the annual and the school. For this reason the names of the heads of various editorial branches were purposely omitted.

Four Chapters

The book was divided into four chapters. The first dealt with the graduates, teaching staff and grad banquet and dance. The pictures of the senior matrics and graduates were arranged to spell "V-H-S-1-9-4-8," a point praised in the adjudications. The second section dealt with the other senior grades and the many literary efforts of the students. Here appeared one of the cartoons which seemed to the judges to suggest competition for James Thurber, well known illustrator and cartoonist. These were drawn by Robert "Snuff" Smith, a former student.

The next section told of "those who walk in glory," the athletes who have brought honor to the school in the past year. The achievements in sports were many and varied in the 1947-48 school year and the annual staff forgot none, dealing with each in its turn. In the fourth chapter, the narrating spirit spoke of those things the students did in their own time, the things they wanted to do, the extra-curricular activities. Here were covered all the clubs, journalism, and other activities that helped to lighten the burden of working under crowded conditions.

Because the Annual staff felt it would be more desirable to the advertisers, the ads were placed at the end of each chapter, a feature that was not found undesirable by the judges.

Financial Success

Financially, this yearbook was more than a success. In addition to paying a debt of $200 incurred the year before, the publications club wound up their year "in the black."

In the words of the spirit that wrote the book "This story has within these pages no end" and the coming annual shows promise of topping even this honor winning effort.

Many Delegates To Jehovah's Witnesses Meet

A crowd of nearly 1,000 people gathered to hear the address given by J. H. Nathan on the "Freedom of All Nations" at the Capitol Theatre on Sunday. The theatre was filled ten minutes before the address was to commence, necessitating the installation of loud speakers behind the National Hotel where an overflow crowd of 200 listeners gathered.

Mr. Nathan's address was the concluding talk in connection with the Theocratic Circuit Assembly of Jehovah's Witnesses held in Vernon during the weekend. The main theme of his speech gave an account of how freedom can be obtained by the incoming "new world of righteousness" under the kingdom of God. Close attention was given to the speaker and many times he was enthusiastically applauded.

The convention was attended by hundreds of delegates coming from Revelstoke, Kamloops, North Thompson, Grand Forks, Princeton and many other Okanagan centres. At the educational school held in the Legion Hall on Friday, 450 people attended to receive instructions, and on Saturday the organizational meeting attracted 605 members.

The immersion services were also held during the weekend with 375 attending and 24 persons being immersed.

The local congregation of Jehovah's Witnesses wish to thank the people of Vernon who so generously offered rooms to accommodate the hundreds of incoming delegates.

Interior Hospital Group Seeks "Home" for Area

KELOWNA.—In view of the expected increased demand for hospital accommodation when the hospital insurance plan goes into effect next year, the interior region of the B.C. Hospitals Association is renewing its request for the establishment of a home for chronic, old-age pensioners and social assistance cases in the interior of B.C. Such was the decision of the meeting of the interior region held at the Legion Hall in Penticton recently.

Coupled with this move was a resolution which approved in general terms the provincial government scheme for hospital insurance and pledged the support of interior hospitals.

These resolutions will be placed before the annual convention of the B.C. Hospitals Association in Vancouver shortly.

Representatives of hospital boards from Revelstoke, Vernon, Kelowna, Summerland, Penticton, Oliver and Princeton discussed mutual problems.

J. A. Abrahamson, president, of Revelstoke, was replaced by Charles Stewart, Penticton hospital board chairman, while J. F. Hampson, Kelowna, who has acted as secretary of the region for the past five years, only consented to carry on this post until a successor could be named by Mr. Stewart.

Delegate to the B.C. Association will be Dr. J. C. Wilcox, Summerland, with K. W. Kinnard, Vernon, as alternate delegate. These two appointments must await ratification of the B.C. body.

Next meeting of the regional group will be held in Oliver, some time in May.

Occupy Bed Space
Most important general discussion arose from the plan to have a home for chronic cases in the interior, to relieve the congestion of interior hospitals. It was stated that more than 50 indigent chronic cases are occupying hospital bed space at the present time in this region, which extends from Princeton and Oliver to Salmon Arm and Revelstoke.

These cases will not go to the Coast as the distance is too great from their friends and familiar surroundings, it was pointed out.

Financial Loss
Besides taking up hospital bed space which is needed for more urgent cases, these patients are a financial liability to the hospitals as the government does not recognize any financial responsibility after 15 days, it was stated.

Dr. J. C. Wilcox suggested that it might be possible to divert some of the Dominion government vote for hospital additions toward a home of this nature.

J. E. O'Mahony, Summerland hospital secretary, expressed the thought that the new insurance plan officials will have to deal with this question, for their own protection.

Salary Variations
Hospital directors reviewed many subjects, including the variations in salaries paid to nursing and sub staffs in the region. There is more of a variance in sub staff pay than in nursing remunerations, it was noted.

Practically all hospitals are now paying the basic $150 per month wage rate for registered nurses, delegates stated.

The meeting was informed that Order No. 52, which stipulates that only $25 per month can be charged for board and lodging of sub staff is to be reviewed on an upward scale.

New Members In Scout Patrols

"You are now a Scout and therefore entitled to wear the Scout uniform." With these words Scoutmaster Stuart Nelson, the first Vernon Troop, placed the Scout hat on one of two new tenderfoots invested Monday night. As a conclusion to the investiture ceremony, Patrol Leader Don Thom pinned the Buffalo Patrol colors on recruit Gerald Cooze welcoming him into the group. Following this Earl Dugate, Patrol Leader of the Lion Patrol, welcomed Bob Dugate into the Patrol in a similar manner. At the end of the ceremony, a loud Scout cheer was given to the two new Scouts.

Plans are now nearing completion for a two-day camp by the Court of Honor which will be held the first week of November at a location new to the Scouts. The trip is to Barclay Lake, north of the Lavington district.

"Best yet," was the opinion of 10 senior Scouts of the Second and Third Vernon Troop when commenting on the senior expedition to King Edward Lake. The group left by truck Saturday afternoon, reaching the starting point, they shouldered 30-pound packs and prepared for the 5,000 foot climb.

Dusk had fallen over the lake when the Scouts reached the high level and the cool mountain air made them quickly prepare a warm supper. A Scout sing-song around a blazing campfire concluded the hard day.

The boys awoke Sunday morning to find that the water in their water bottles had frozen and their boots were stiff. After breakfast the group explored the lakeshore and practiced using the compass and maps that had been included in the camp equipment. Later the Scouts met with little success when they attempted to discover a lake which was reported in that area. However, the boys quickly devoured a well-earned lunch and began their long home descent, reaching home Sunday night.

Florence Nightingale was called the "Angel of the Crimea."

Death Removes Prominent Citizen From Community

A well-known and highly respected businessman and resident of the Okanagan Valley, Ellwood Lindsay Cross, aged 60 years, died at his home in Vernon on Sunday, October 17, after a long illness.

Mr. Cross was born November 20, 1887, in Winnipeg, Manitoba, and was the son of the late Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Cross, prominent pioneer family of Winnipeg and Western Canada. Mr. Cross received his early education at Winnipeg public schools, Tuckwell's School and Upper Canada College, Toronto. During school holidays he frequently accompanied his father on land surveys. Mr. Cross' father was a man of whom it has been said that no one knew the prairies or land values of those days better than he.

On leaving school, Mr. Cross was engaged by the Canadian Pacific Railway on land surveys, and for other companies for which his father and associates were interested. On one occasion he guided the lost Barr Colonist for the C.P.R. from Battleford to Lloydminster.

His father started the Belgian Orchards in Vernon and Kelowna for the Land Company; also, with two others, acquiring what is now the Bulman Ranch at Ellison. Mr. Cross was sent out in the spring of 1907 to supervise their interests. Later, the ranch was sold to the late Thomas Bulman, then of Winnipeg.

Liking the Okanagan Valley, Mr. Cross bought a ranch on the Vernon Road, and returned to his surveying business until the orchard began to bear. In the winter of 1911-12 he accompanied his parents and sisters on a trip abroad, going up the Nile as far as Khartoum. In a hurry to return to Canada, he and his father cancelled passage on the "Titanic," sailing a week earlier.

In February, 1913, Mr. Cross married Miss Islay Macdonald, daughter of a pioneer Winnipeg family, and for the following 30 years resided in Kelowna, coming to Vernon in 1942, the family arriving in 1943. In 1946, Mr. Cross formed the present Vernon Locker Service and Meats Ltd.

In 1914, Mr. Cross became associated with nine other Kelowna men in the canning business, later sold to Dominion Canners, of which Mr. Cross was managing director for the Okanagan Valley. Leaving this firm in 1925, with a group of friends, he started a sawmill and Okanagan Packers and its Canning Division, later selling out to Western Packing Corporation, which company he represented for two years in St. John, New Brunswick canning division, and the Berwick, Nova Scotia, Evaporating Company.

Returning to Kelowna in 1929, Mr. Cross acquired his own plant, the Rutland Canners, which was destroyed by fire in February, 1930.

In his youth, Mr. Cross was a keen hockey and football player, playing for Winnipeg Rowing Club. He was also on the first team of Upper Canada College, and was an enthusiastic curler, which sport he followed for 40 years.

He is survived by his widow; three sons, "Bill" W. H. Cross, of Vernon; Lindsay Cross, of Trail; Russell Cross, of Vancouver; and three daughters, Mrs. Harold Hamilton, of Vernon; Miss Ellen Cross, of U.B.C. Extension Department, and Miss Betty Cross, at home; and two sisters, Mrs. Florence Gemmill, of Winnipeg, Man., and Miss Eldine Cross, of Victoria.

Funeral services were conducted by Rev. Gerald W. Payne from Vernon United Church on Wednesday afternoon, October 20, with committal in Vernon Cemetery.

Six Criminal Cases Head Assizes Docket

At least six criminal cases head the lengthy docket for the Fall Sitting of the Supreme Court of Assize to be held in the Vernon Court House, beginning Monday, November 1. The possibility of a seventh criminal case has been suggested.

Those definitely known to be on the agenda are: Herbert T. Harthel, charged with manslaughter; G. Donnell, bigamy; Victor Kellerman, rape; Victor Kellerman, Rudolph Metz, Robert Evans and Leonard Gabel, rape; Alvin G. Glone, arson; Eddie Sanford, theft.

As the deadline for civil cases is today, Thursday, the list is incomplete.

The name of the Crown Prosecutor has not yet been disclosed but it is understood that Mr. Justice A. M. Macpherson will be the presiding judge.

City Band Opens Winter Concert Series Sunday

Smartly attired in their recently acquired uniforms, the Vernon City Band, under the baton of Bandmaster H. W. Phillips, will open its series of winter concerts in the Scout Hall on Sunday, November 7, at 9 p.m. A program of outstanding musical selections has been arranged.

In a report given by Mr. Phillips concerning the purchase of the new uniforms, it was stated that with the exception of a few donations from supporters of the band, the uniforms had been financed through the efforts of the band members themselves. All money received from engagements for the past two years has been put into a uniform fund, and by July of this year the total was large enough to enable placing of the order. The total cost of the uniforms was $1,786.

When the uniforms were received, the balance needed was underwritten personally by the band members and it is hoped that the coming series of winter concerts will retire this debt.

There will be no sale of tickets or programs for these concerts as the band wishes to give everyone an opportunity to attend. A silver collection will be taken at the door for anyone wishing to donate to the band uniform fund.

Pro Rec Classes To Be Held Here During Winter

Space in the Okanagan Valley School for Girls, formerly known as Brandon House, has been secured by Mrs. Charles J. McDowell for Pro Rec classes in adult physical education during the coming winter. The floor in the small gymnasium which will be used is in good condition, and a piano is available. Mrs. H. Dauphin will assist Mrs. McDowell.

The first class will be held on November 2 at 7:30 p.m., and will be continued each Tuesday and Friday at the same hour. A nominal fee will be charged to cover expenses. Instruction is available to anyone from 16 to 60, states Mrs. McDowell, who has taken two instructors' courses in the past two summers to fit her for the work. Courses are planned by the Department of Education, and include keep-fit exercises for adults, physical training and folk dancing.

Mrs. McDowell is also considering the establishment of a hobby shop in connection with the project. A social time will be emphasized in addition to its physical-fitness program, and coffee will be served at the close of the meetings.

High School Teacher To Address Canadian Club Women Tuesday

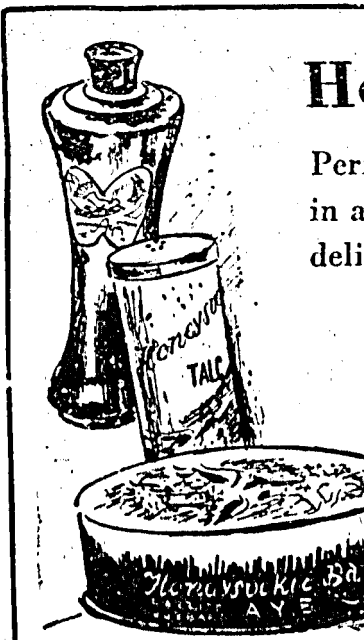

With impressions of England and the Continent still alive and fresh after a year spent at the Institute of Education, University of London, Miss Anna Fulton has an interesting message for members of the Women's Canadian Club on Tuesday afternoon, October 26, in Burns Hall, when she will be guest speaker.

Miss Fulton was awarded a scholarship in 1947 which took her to England. Her impressions of the Mother Country are warm, realistic and kind. Through association with other scholarship winners from all over the world, she became tuned to many of the current international problems.

Miss Fulton has returned to her former post on the teaching staff of Vernon High School.

DEATHS

MARTIN—Passed away October 16, 1948, Ronald Martin, aged six months, twin son of Mr. and Mrs. George Martin, of Vernon, B.C.

IN MEMORIAM

CAISWELL—In loving memory of Archie Carswell, who passed away a year ago yesterday, October 20th, 1947.

Memory lane is a little path Where hearts are ever true; A path we must travel again and again, Because it leads to you. We always see your dear, kind face Through a mist of anxious tears, But the hardest part is a broken heart And a burden of lonely years. But oh for the touch of a vanished hand, And the sound of a voice that is still. At home in the beautiful hills of God, In the valley of rest so fair, Sometime, somehow, when our work is done, With joy we shall meet him there. Always remembered by his loving wife and family.

HEMILLING—In loving memory of Sydney Erminie Hemmeling, who passed away October 19th, 1947. Peacefully sleeping, resting at last. The world's weary troubles and trials are all past. In silence she suffered, in patience she bore. Till God called her home, to suffer no more. Ever remembered by her husband and family.

MEER—In loving remembrance of a dear husband and Dad, Francis Henry Meer, who passed away October 23rd, 1946. Deep in our hearts a memory is kept Of one we loved, and will never forget. Sadly missed by his loving wife, son and daughter-in-law.

CAISWELL—In loving memory of Archie Carswell, who passed away October 20, 1947. He had a nature you could not help loving, And a heart that was purer than gold. And to those who knew him and loved him will never grow cold. Sadly missed by his family.

posed two feet at the house.

Earth from basement excavation on 20th Street is still on this thoroughfare, which is partially graded, and has had some gravel.

The lane between 20th and 21st Streets is graded, but ungravelled. The sewer backfill is very rough.

Twenty-first Street is graded, but unfinished and rough.

The best lane in the subdivision is the 21st Street-Okanagan Avenue lane. This needs grading and graveling and graveling, and the west end needs filling.

There is no sewer on Okanagan Avenue. This must serve four hours now occupied.

Spring Run-off Danger

West Road and 35th Street are roughly graded, with some gravel. There are no signs of water-main ditching or back filling; neither are there culverts, storm drains or road ditches, concluded Alderman Harwood's report. He added that there is a potential danger from spring run-off to the homes located below the subdivision.

His recommendation that the City Solicitor should now handle the matter was endorsed by Alderman Amos Baker and Alderman E. Bruce Cousins.

G. Melvin, who was spokesman for the 14 property owners' delegation, which waited on the City Council on October 11, assured the City Council that active co-operation from the subdivision home owners would be given to the city, should it be required. Mr. Melvin also tendered thanks, on behalf of himself and the delegation, for the courtesy accorded them by the Council on the occasion of their visit on October 11.

which are calves. He sold three bulls to a California buyer recently for breeding purposes.

A record of Mr. Ellison's awards this fall is: Vancouver P.N.E., four firsts; 12 second, four third place awards.

Chilliwack Fall Fair: two firsts, 13 seconds, and six third place awards.

Armstrong Interior Provincial Exhibition: 15 firsts and five second place awards.

Kamloops Fall Fair: Sixteen firsts and four third place awards.

Williams Lake: One grand champion, one reserve champion, plus the record breaking sales.

The big demand at Williams Lake was for prime Canadian beef for the United States and this was shown when American buyers dominated the bidding.

Approximately 3,000 head of cattle were offered, and brought prices averaging from 18 cents to 22 cents, with a high mark of 42 cents.

The big show came to an end with the famous Klondike celebration in Elks Hall Friday evening.

cents.

The situation regarding food is unchanged. Quantity is sufficient for health, but there is little variety. Fats are the article hardest to "come by," and "hits the house-keeper, who can't fix up anything tasty," said Mr. Ike. "An ounce or two of this or that is nothing when it comes to preparing a meal."

Foodstuffs are not out of step as far as costs are concerned, with those prevailing in Canada; however, it is possible to buy a pound of butter, of the housewife has enough points for such a purchase for 16, or just over 40 cents.

Its chief industries are the manufacture of automobiles and machine tools, bicycles and a large amount of general engineering. Most of these plants were manufacturing airplanes and munitions during the war; hence the probability that Coventry was the target for the unleashed fury of the Huns.

Mr. Ike, who was visiting friends in Vernon with his wife, is enthusiastic over the Okanagan. "Here," he said, before leaving Monday, "is where I would like to retire." He likes the climate, the scenery, and most of all the people. "British Columbia is magnificent and big, and the visitor is at a loss to appreciate its beauties," he said. Mr. Ike has been to Canada and the United States before but this was his first trip to the west.

LUMBY, Oct. 19.—The Lumby Board of Trade was keenly interested in the meeting of Vernon, Lumby, Nakusp and Arrow Lakes trade groups in Vernon on Wednesday evening of last week. The keynote of the meeting was to have the Monashee Highway made serviceable now to be kept open all winter. Thus, a much needed mail service would be possible to the Arrow Lakes. Those attending from Lumby were: Daryl Packham, Cecil Wells, Ron Hill, George Morrison, A. Rennie and R. Ward.

On Friday, the Lumby Lions Club will hold a "white elephant" auction sale.

Recently, improved weather has enabled the farmers to harvest practically all their crops. Steve Ans and sons have been operating a combine in the district for the past week. Straw baling in the field has also been in progress.

The Girl Guides held their regular meeting on Monday evening with a good attendance.

Student Elections

David Gooding was elected president of the Lumby student council in the High School on Wednesday of last week. Ruth Ulmer was named vice-president and Joyce Miller was elected secretary-treasurer. Prior to the election the candidates and their campaign managers addressed the students gathered in Miss Balburn's room.

The following representatives were chosen by their home room classes to complete the council slate of officers: Grades 11 and 12, Leslie Gallon, Edythe Major; Grade 10, Don Ulmer and Noel Gallon; Grades 8 and 9, David Pattie, Shirley Schroeder; Grade 7, Ron Quessel, Gail Duke; Grade 6, Betty Seigner, Harold Major.

A dance will be held by the Canadian Legion branch on Remembrance Day. Merchandise and a $50 door prize will be offered.

Three children were recently born to Lumby parents in the Vernon Jubilee Hospital. They were: a boy to Mrs. Brick Morrison, on Tuesday; a girl to Mrs. Redlaw, on Thursday; and a boy to Mrs. George Morrison, on Saturday.

Mrs. Bloom is progressing very well in the Vernon Jubilee Hospital where she is recovering from an operation. Mrs. Bloom is expected home in a few days.

Charlie Ansell and Tony Paradis made a business trip to Vancouver, leaving here Sunday and returning Thursday.

Norman Gertz has just returned from Edmonton, Alta., where he has been on an extended visit.

Mrs. Stansfeld and Harry Austin paid a Sunday visit to friends in Lumby. The Armstrongs they brought along was much appreciated.

taining stolen goods, a green mattress, a blue spring filled mattress, two green cotton bedspreads, one pair of curtains, one pair of cotton drapes to a value exceeding $25, the property of Al Lord, of Rutland.

Mrs. Ida Gibson, Gloria Gibson, Lorne Gibson, Gerald Gibson and Lois Scheer, charged that on September 27 at Carr's Landing they retained in their possession stolen goods, four sheets, one bed comforter, two cotton bedspreads, one pair white wool blankets and one bath mat to a value exceeding $25, the property of P. C. McCallum, at Kelowna Kumbly Court.

Mrs. Ida Gibson, Lorne Gibson, Lois Scheer and Louise Simms, charged that on July 28 at Rutland they stole two spring filled mattresses, one couch mattress, one ear robe, four cotton sheets, four cotton pillow slips, four pillows, two single white blankets, two cotton green striped bedspreads, two pairs of cotton drapes, one pair cotton curtains, three curtain rods and four towels, exceeding the value of $25, the property of Albert Lord.

Lloyd Gibson and Louise Simms, charged with stealing a full sized spring mattress, one three-quarter size spring filled mattress, four sheets, four pillow slips, four pillows, one pair white wool blankets, one cotton plaid blanket, one bed comforter, two cotton bedspreads, two bath towels, two hand towels and one bath mat, exceeding the value of $25, the property of P. C. McCallum, Kelowna Kumbly Court.

In the election of trial here Wednesday, the nine accused were represented by Horace Caldwell, of this city, Crown Prosecutor was J. R. Kildon, also of Vernon, Kelowna Convictions.

In Kelowna on Friday, before Magistrate Harry Anglin, Lorne and Lloyd Gibson were both fined $50 and costs each, or one month in default, in each of two same charges in connection with the finding by police of a dog and fawn deer in their possession when the rats were made.

Lorne Gibson also was fined $100 and costs or three months hard labor for assaulting a police officer, fifty dollars and costs or one month hard labor was the sentence for Lloyd on conviction of obstructing a police officer.

These latter convictions followed an incident when the two men were being escorted from the police cells to the court room for trial on the same charges.

By Monday last neither man had paid the fines, Magistrate Anglin ruled default terms would be consecutive and date back to September 27, the date of arrest.

P.-T.A. Members Advised Children Handling Firearms

"Be careful when handling hunting equipment and make sure not to leave any shells in places where children can get at them. They are ignorant to the dangers of them." This was the timely advice given members of the Parent-Teachers' Association by E. W. Cooper, chairman of the health committee, in his report on Wednesday evening of last week.

This was the first meeting of the Association for this term and was presided over by Mrs. John McCulloch, president. A large gathering attended and many subjects were discussed.

Besides stressing the point concerning firearms, Mr. Cooper stated that understanding towards blasting and dynamite caps should be taught in the schools. Many accidents that could be avoided by such teaching are occurring each year, he asserted.

The speaker was very emphatic in covering the dangers in road accidents. He suggested making stop signs to be used in protecting youngsters when getting out from school buses. Mr. Cooper continued by pointing out that sport equipment is a very important part of school activities and that as much as possible should be bought for district elementary schools.

The Health Committee was requested to attend a City Council meeting to ask that Mason Street be closed completely from Schubert Ave. to 35th Ave. If this can not be done it was suggested to close the street during school hours only.

A report given by Mrs. A. S. Towell concerning a radio system to be installed in the Elementary School was very well received by the meeting. Much enthusiasm was shown by the members during discussions on the subject and it was decided a drive would be made towards getting a radio system. It will be equipped with loud speakers for each classroom and educational radio programs can be broadcast to the children. Half of the cost of such installation would be shared by the Department of Education. It is hoped that in the future a tape recording system may

Ok. Centre W.I. to Buy Film Projector

OKANAGAN CENTRE, Oct. 19.—The monthly meeting of the Women's Institute was held at the Community Hall on Thursday of last week. In the absence of the president, vice-president Mrs. H. Bernau took the meeting.

Arrangements were made for the November sale which will be held on November 18. A tag day for the blind will be held on Saturday, October 23. Among the affairs discussed was the disposal of the money collected for a children's swimming pool. It has been decided not to go ahead with that project. It was finally agreed to donate the money to purchase a slide projector for the school.

The hostesses for the afternoon were Mrs. P. W. Pixon and Mrs. H. Van Ackeren.

Mrs. C. Dain, the Centre school teacher, attended the Valley teachers' convention at Penticton recently.

Mrs. W. J. Beimers and daughter, accompanied by Mrs. W. Harrison, of Winnipeg, Man., are visiting Mr. and Mrs. F. Dawson.

Mrs. F. Hawkey, of Glenmore, was a visitor at the weekend at the home of Mr. and Mrs. B. Cooney.

Mr. and Mrs. M. Magrath, of Vancouver, were recent visitors at the Centre, guests of Mrs. N. Carter, mother of Mrs. Magrath.

Mr. and Mrs. Jeglum, of Hane, are the guests of their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. B. Jeglum.

Mrs. H. Gleed left on Saturday for Oliver where she will join friends who are motoring to the Coast.

Fall Weather Makes Enderby Residents Forget Summer Rain

ENDERBY, Oct. 18.—Enderby residents are delighted with the beautiful fall weather which has prevailed during the past few weeks. Heavy frosts at night and clear bright days have made it an ideal fall, and the long rainy spells during the summer months have been almost forgotten.

Practically all the district farmers have been able to get their fall plowing under way. Many, of course, are well behind with their work, and have had to hire extra help this year; but others who were caught up are now nicely finished and able to assist their neighbors.

Apples and garden vegetables have been flooding the local markets, the demand not being able to keep up with the supply at this time of the year. Much heavier crops of grapes are being noticed this year on the local market than has been the case during the past couple of years. Most of the grape supply has been coming from the vines of William Scott, O. B. Carlson and I. Hawkins.

Several years ago Fred Barnes had a considerable quantity of grape vines under cultivation and supplied several hundreds of pounds to local users.

Industrial Expansion At Summerland; Lake Fill Now Necessary

SUMMERLAND Two industrial expansion proposals which will require lake fills in Okanagan Lake on Summerland's waterfront are proposed for the next year. In order to meet this contingency, Summerland council is planning to proceed with its project started a year ago to extend the boundaries of the municipality into Okanagan Lake a distance of six hundred feet over the entire seven-mile stretch from Trout Creek Point to Crescent Beach.

Councillor Wilson introduced the subject before Tuesday's council meeting when he inquired what progress is being made towards extending the municipal boundaries eastward. He reminded the council that this project was commenced last fall, but there has been no progress reported for months.

Acting Clerk Gordon Smith was asked to delve into this subject and endeavor to get the necessary legal steps undertaken as soon as possible.

Over 400 Valley Teachers Discuss Education Problems At Penticton Parley Recently

PENTICTON—Over four hundred teachers were present during the twenty-seventh annual convention of the Okanagan Valley Teachers' Association held here on October 6, 7 and 8.

Series of sectional meetings, business meetings and general meetings were held in the high school and in the Legion Hall auditorium designed to aid teachers in the valley in grappling with the problems of modern-day education.

Teachers from as far north as Arrowhead were present at the conference and delegates continued to arrive in Penticton during the second day of the convention.

Several important resolutions were passed by the delegates, including a recommendation that teachers contribute towards a minimum $40 a month for their pensions.

Mayor Robert Lyon officially opened the conference on Wednesday evening, October 6, in the Legion Hall, when the first public meeting of the convention and discussion was presided over by Chairman K. F. Alexander, president of the O.V.T.A.

A discussion group, consisting of Mrs. C. C. Macdonald, Miss A. L. Mess, Frank McDonald and Theodore Padberg, under the chairmanship of the Rev. W. L. Chow, debated the question, "Are Our Schools Producing the Citizens Our Society Needs?"

An address by H. L. Campbell, assistant superintendent of education, highlighted activities on the second day.

"Democracy is on trial today," he said. "If it is to survive, then we, as teachers and citizens, must guarantee that a comfortable majority of our young people become well-informed, intelligent, clear-thinking, and social-minded citizens."

"The production of a limited number of such citizens is futile, unless we are willing to revert to a political system with a trained governing class and to permit this class to govern the rest of us."

"In a democracy the ballot of the most ignorant, the most mis-informed, and the most anti-social, is just as powerful as the ballot of the wisest and most idealistic," he continued.

"Can the church, the home, the school, educate the people to a fervent belief in their individual responsibility for the welfare of their fellow citizens of the city, their province, their nation, and of the world? Here, indeed, is a challenge," declared Mr. Campbell, in conclusion.

Later the delegates met in the Gyo Hall for the convention banquet, expecting to hear an address on education by H. M. MacLean of the Vancouver Normal School.

Instead, Mr. MacLean gave a brilliant exhibition of "Magic" and treated the teachers to two hours of first class entertainment.

A violin solo by William Hendry also provided an enjoyable diversion from their day-long sessions.

Meanwhile, sectional meetings were carried on simultaneously in the junior and senior high school classrooms during Thursday and Friday, dealing with the various subjects in the school curriculum. There were meetings also for teachers in grades one to six.

Dr. Ulton Byrne, of the Child Guidance Clinic, dealt with aspects of child guidance in this province, pointing out that the first clinic in the Interior was held in Penticton on February 20, 1946.

Outlining the functions of the clinic, he said, "When we take a maladjusted child into our clinic, we do not make a decision on the child ourselves. What we do is to investigate his mental and physical background, and then submit our recommendations to the school."

"These investigations are carried out by either nurses or social workers, and I might add that the clinic is always available to revisit areas with sufficient juvenile need for psychological attention," he said.

Dr. Byrne listed some of the characteristics of the maladjusted child to include nail-biting, thumb-sucking, apathy, day-dreaming, obstinacy, selfishness, lack of ambition and a tendency to quarrel.

"For the child with a less than average intelligence, too, there is a definite need for special educational facilities," he added.

Addressing another group on the subject of "Training for Citizenship in the Secondary Schools of England," Miss Anna Fulton, of Vernon high schools, declared that she was very impressed with the advanced educational standards in Britain.

"It is my opinion that compared with English standards, we do not have sufficient discipline in our teaching," she declared.

She pointed out that Bible classes are a feature of English schools, but added that the pupils do not have to stay in the classes if they do not wish.

The question of physical education was discussed by Miss M. Adams, of the department of physical education in the University of British Columbia.

She urged that teachers keep pictures of the human body to help them instruct pupils in this important phase of mental development.

"Discuss the main parts of the body with your pupils freely, and touch them the vocabulary words, so that they understand what you are talking about," said Miss Adams.

Dealing with the safety campaign for children, she thought that the best methods of teaching the necessity for precautionary measures on the streets was to take the children to the street corners and give actual demonstrations.

An art group held their meeting under the direction of Miss Collins, intermediate supervisor of the Burnaby schools. "Art in the schools here is poor," she said, "owing to the fact that the children do not work hard enough. They are allowed to take their time over their pictures. My idea is to keep them at it, and you'll get better results," she said.

Mr. Campbell gave another special address in the Legion Hall on Friday afternoon. He made a comprehensive survey of alcoholic education throughout the province, and divided his address into three classifications: the establishment of alcoholic education; the principles governing the subject, and the proper method of teaching it.

"The custom of drinking has become woven into the fabric of our civilization," he averred. "There is a widespread desire for indulgence in alcoholic beverages, and so far society has been unable to eliminate this indulgence."

"It is a fact that 58 percent of the adult population now use drink in one form or another. However, there is evidence that per capita consumption is decreasing," he declared.

"Drinking has been condoned on one hand and denounced on the other by various sections of society," he added.

Mr. Campbell then remarked that a precedent for the study of alcohol was set in 1804, when Dr. T. Trotter, of the University of Edinburgh, produced the first treatise on alcoholic education.

Mr. Campbell emphasized that there should be more education in the schools on the subject. "There is more education on alcoholism going on outside the schools than inside," he said.

"The basis for excessive drinking can frequently be found in the formative years of a child's growth, therefore it follows that proper education may prevent excessive drinking if detected at an early stage," he said.

"The family is the cradle of the race, not only in a physical but in a spiritual and moral sense, too. Therefore everything possible must be done by us to improve the family," he told the teachers.

Regarding the teaching of this subject, Mr. Campbell had this to say:

"Our educational program is designed to provide young people with accurate and scientific information regarding the use of alcohol. No more and no less."

"By a study of the manual and course of study, it is our hope that you will see that our program is a sound and worthy one. Let me emphasize, however, that any teacher who cannot adopt and strictly adhere to the philosophy of the program must not attempt to teach it."

"The minister of education and the department, have no doubt that the program will be in safe and capable hands," he concluded.

H. D. Pritchard, chairman of the resolutions committee, reported on the seven resolutions to be brought before the meeting. These covered a variety of subjects from the provision of a per capita levy to ensure all teachers' pensions having a minimum floor of $40 monthly, to a change in the O.V.T.A. bylaws to permit of one representative for each 50 teachers being appointed to the district council.

It was stated that to provide a minimum of $40 for all pensioned teachers would call for a levy of only 50 cents per month in that there are only comparatively few teachers now on pension whose monthly cheques are smaller than $40. A recommendation to this effect will go forward to the British Columbia Teachers' Federation.

Other resolutions dealt with teachers' certification, the value of practical agriculture classes and a recommendation to the B.C.T.F. to press for exemption in income tax for amounts spent by teachers on the purchase of current literature dealing with education.

The earliest recorded history of China begins in 2356 B.C.

Lambeth Bishops' Call Read

Lambeth Conference's call for vital Christianity was read in All Saints' Church, Vernon, on Sunday, October 10, in common with all Anglican churches throughout the world, in accordance with the request of the Archbishops and Bishops who attended the five-week meeting in Lambeth, England, last summer.

In the absence of Rev. L. A. C. Smith, Eric H. Olmsted read the message Sunday morning. In the evening, it was read again by E. R. M. Yerburch, licensed lay-reader, of Salmon Arm.

The keynote of the address is, "encouragement to the people of God the world over."

"We know well how hard it is for many of you to live as Christians in this present age. Some of you have to meet opposition in non-Christian homes; some are a small minority of Christians in non-Christian lands. All at times are tempted to lose heart, and to wonder whether Christian living is possible. We are certain it is possible, and worth everything," in part ran the message.

Dual Citizenship

"The social order is all the time being made by the thoughts men think, the loyalties they honor, and the deeds they do or leave undone. If the Church is to be to the world (Continued on Page 14)

Enderby Women Hear of India Missionary Work

ENDERBY, Oct. 18.—Miss A. Amment, who has been a missionary in India for some time and who has done considerable work among lepers in that country, unfolded many interesting stories to members of the Baptist Women's Society when they held their regular monthly meeting at the home of Mrs. N. S. Johnson on Wednesday afternoon of last week.

There were a good number present at the meeting and the guest speaker told various interesting highlights about her work among those unfortunate peoples. A number of the younger members of the congregation had been invited to attend the meeting to hear Miss Amment, after which those present enjoyed a duet sung by two of the younger members, Miss Barbara Johnson and Miss Della Johnson.

It was decided to pack two parcels to send to missionaries. One will go to Miss Margaret Dyck who is doing missionary work in Africa, and the other to Miss Tina Blatz, who is at present in Switzerland and who will be entering Germany shortly to continue missionary work there. Miss Blatz is well known in Enderby, having been employed on the staff of the Enderby General Hospital for several years.

On Friday afternoon the members of the W.M.S. met to do hospital mending, a task they have taken on for some time.

In the evening, Miss Amment showed slides to the church members and also addressed them on various highlights of the work done by missions in India among the lepers.

What Contribution is Being Made to Christian Opinion?

By REV. LORIN A. C. SMITH

Twice recently, on matters pertaining to Christian Church teaching, persons have said to me: "Now, in MY opinion!" May I ask you to consider what constitutes a Christian opinion.

As a starting point, let us think of Jesus. Though He did not ask anyone their "opinion" regarding Himself and His saving mission, yet He did test their thoughts by asking them questions.

For example, Jesus said to His disciples, "Whom do men say that I, the Son of Man, am?" And they gave the opinions of those outside of the fellowship of Jesus' band of followers and said: "Some say that Thou art John the Baptist; some, Elias; and others, Jeremias, or one of the prophets." Such opinions, gathered from the common talk on the streets and highways, may have seemed worthy enough to those as yet unenlightened by the truth which is in Jesus Christ.

But, Jesus did not think so. Such opinions were not even right. So Jesus said to His Disciples: "But whom say YE that I am?" The "opinion" true and astounding as it was, flashed back, "Thou art the Christ, the Son of the Living God."

Here was a truly Christian opinion. Whence did it come? What made that opinion Christian? Not did it come from John, Mark, Nicodemus, or Joseph of Arimathea, who may have been interested onlookers of Jesus' life and ministry at that time? No!

We do well to hear what Jesus said: "Blessed are thou, Simon Bar-jona: for flesh and blood hath not revealed it unto thee, but My Father which is in heaven." In other words, it was the result of a direct revelation from God. This revelation, however, was not just to anyone generally; rather, it was to those who were prepared by being constantly with Jesus in fellowship with Him and those whom He had chosen.

In conclusion, we remind ourselves that Jesus said, as He was about to return to the Father, "Where two or three are gathered together in My name, there am I in the midst of them." In the light of Jesus' teaching and that of His immediate followers, we may be assured that Christian opinions do not ordinarily originate with those who are outside Jesus' fellowship and society. We may expect, however, to find Christian opinions within the actively-worshipping fellowship and congregation of Christ's flock, the Church, in which there are both "flesh and blood" and divine revelations through the Spirit of God.

It may be just a matter of opinion, as some suggest; but, whether or not I am actively living in the worshipping fellowship of Christ through His Church, this does make a mighty difference. Just what contribution to Christian thought and opinion are we making here by our membership and worship in His Church in this, our community?

Missionary Describes Church Work in China

"The problem in China is not only economic and political, but a moral and spiritual one," said Rev. G. G. Smith, B.A., missionary on furlough from China, speaking in Vernon United Church last Sunday morning. Mr. Smith spoke on the need for missionary work in China, and gave a short resume of what the church has accomplished there.

Dedication of Girl Guide Colors

October 17 was set aside by the Church of England in Canada as Children's Day and Youth Sunday and it was observed as such in All Saints' Anglican Church at both services.

In the morning, colors of the 3rd Company, Girl Guides, were dedicated by Rev. L. A. C. Smith. The Company was led by two color parties, the first one bearing the Union Jack, which flag was placed in the Sanctuary at the opening of the service. In the second color party, the Guide standard was carried by Betty Birch. Mr. Smith took for the theme of his sermon, "Loyalty," one of the pledges of the Guides.

Also at the morning service, Janet Olmsted was awarded third prize in the Dominion Junior Auxiliary competition for scrapbooks. This award, which took the form of a book, was presented to Janet by Mr. Smith.

"If the Communists took over China tomorrow, they would be faced with the same problems as exist today in carrying out their program," he declared.

Superstition is still rife in China. The speaker gave illustrations of the extent to which this is carried out in the lives of the country people particularly. "We are oftentimes discouraged, but you have no conception of the power of the pagan environment on these people."

While the young people are not accepting the pagan beliefs of their forefathers, they have no faith. "Old standards are swept away. No new standards are there to replace them," said Mr. Smith, describing the grip the drug habit as on its victims; the irresponsibility of the marriage tie and its easy severance. Over 50 percent of Chinese adults cannot read or write.

Mr. Smith described the work of the United Church mission stations with their medical work, clinics, schools, kindergartens, evangelistic services, visits to homes and jails. A point made was the arousing of social responsibility through belief in Christianity.

"Come over to Macedonia, and help us," was the text, taken from the sixteenth chapter of Acts of the Apostles.

Rev. G. W. Payne was conducting a service in Lumby. In his absence George Falconer read the service, with the junior choir, directed by Mrs. G. W. Lenzen, leading the singing.

Large Congregation Gives Thanks at Okanagan Centre

OKANAGAN CENTRE, Oct. 19.—A large congregation attended Harvest Thanksgiving service in Okanagan Centre United Church last Sunday, October 17. The church was decorated with a profusion of flowers, fruits and vegetables, which were later donated to Vernon Jubilee Hospital. Soloist was Mrs. S. Crysdale.

The Dutch have been in the Indies since the latter part of the 16th century.

INSTALMENT PAYMENTS for B.C. HOSPITAL INSURANCE PREMIUMS ARE NOW DUE

You will receive your B.C. Hospital Insurance Card after you have paid for it. These cards will cover a six months' or a twelve months' period, depending on the extent of prepayment of the premium.

*AN EASY WAY TO PAY

Payment by instalments is for your convenience. If you wish to avoid making payment in a lump sum, your first instalment is now due. Premium payments may be made on an instalment basis, provided they are made in advance and are equivalent to or total six months' premium by January 1st, 1949.

OTHER WAYS TO PAY

The twelve months' card is obtained by prepayment of a full year's premium before January 1st, 1949. A six months' card is obtained by prepayment of six months' premium before January 1st, 1949.

PREMIUM RATES

SINGLE: $15.00 per annum, or $7.50 half yearly, or $2.50 per monthly instalment, October to March.

HEAD OF FAMILY, ONE DEPENDENT: $24.00 per annum, or $12.00 half yearly, or $4.00 per monthly instalment, October to March.

HEAD OF FAMILY, TWO OR MORE DEPENDENTS: $30.00 per annum, or $15.00 half yearly, or $5.00 per monthly instalment, October to March.

You selected your own method of premium payment at the time of registration.

Residents of the Vernon area should make payments through the mail or in person to:

THE COURT HOUSE, VERNON, B.C.

HERE'S WHY YOU PAY PREMIUMS NOW

Your Hospital Insurance Card represents necessary hospital care for you and your family. The Card itself is proof of payment and establishes your right to receive necessary hospital protection starting next January 1st. It cannot be issued to you until the premium has been paid. Prepayment is an essential feature of any type of insurance. It helps to guarantee general participation and is the best way of insuring continuation of the present low premiums. Prepayment also protects hospitals from unpaid bills and operating deficits.

DELAYED REGISTRATION

If you have not yet registered, you should immediately obtain a registration form from your local B.C. Hospital Insurance Service Office, complete and return it as soon as possible.

EVERYONE MUST BE REGISTERED

Harvest Festival Service In Oyama United Church

OYAMA, Oct. 19.—Harvest Thanksgiving service conducted by Rev. S. Crysdale in the Oyama United Church on October 17 was attended by a large congregation. A vocal solo was rendered by Mrs. S. Crysdale accompanied by Mrs. A. B. Smith.

The church was decorated with autumn leaves and flowers, fruits and vegetables, which were donated to the Vernon Jubilee Hospital. A congregational meeting is called for this evening, Thursday, October 21 at 8 o'clock in the Church Hall.

AUBURN, Ala.—Alabama and Auburn football teams will meet this year for the first time since 1907. The last game, 41 years ago, ended in an historic 7-7 tie.

Rutland Board of Trade Supervises School Signs

RUTLAND, Oct. 18.—The Rutland Board of Trade executive met on Wednesday evening of last week, and among other matters proceeded to arrange for the next supper meeting, which it was agreed would be held November 17. The president and secretary were delegated as a committee to secure a speaker. The Board has had four special signs painted for use in the school zone. They take the form of a life-size image of a school girl, and they will be placed in the middle of the highway at the approaches to the school during school hours. Two signs will be placed at the Adventist school also.

The annual season windup dance of the Rutland Baseball Club was held in the community hall on Thanksgiving Day, and proved to be a very successful affair. Dancing continued to 2:30 a.m. to the music of Finn's orchestra. The club will net $135 as a result of the dance. The season will end with the boys having more than enough to square all accounts, and a small balance in hand to start the new season.

Hit By Truck
Bobby McKinley, six-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. R. I. McKinley, was hit by a logging truck driven by J. Lind, and suffered severe abrasions and shock. At first it was thought that his leg was broken. The youngster was on his way home from school, and crossed in front of the truck. The driver did his best to avoid him, and averted what might have been a much more serious accident.

The Rutland Sawmill is closed down for a month while a second boiler is being installed, and a re-saw also. Repairs to the Dutch oven will also be undertaken at the same time. A reserve supply of logs is being built up.

The Rutland High School football team won the Central Okanagan zone playoff by defeating Kelowna High in three straight games, 3-0, 9-1 and 7-1.

Bob White was a passenger by air to Vancouver on Thursday last, where he will pick up a new car and drive it back.

Mrs. E. Clement of Winfield is spending the fall and winter months as a guest of Mr. and Mrs. J. Ferman Bell of the Belgo.

Mrs. R. Lucas and Donella spent a four-day holiday at the Coast over the Thanksgiving weekend. Recent visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. G. Bissell have been Mr. F. W. McLean and son, Ronald, and Mrs. and Mrs. L. A. West, all of Port Alberni, Vancouver Island.

At a christening service at the United Church Thanksgiving weekend, Henry Stewart, infant son of Constable and Mrs. Henry Turcotte, R.C.M.P., and Patricia Ann, infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Manson, were baptised by Rev. Stewart Crysdale.

Two funerals were held here in the past week: that of Nicholas Hush on Monday, and on Friday, services for James G. Hadden, an old-time resident of the Belgo, were held. Both passed away suddenly after brief illnesses. The late Mr. Hush was here on a visit to his son, J. W. Hush, at the time.

W.C.T.U. Plans To Keep Up Ward In New Hospital

Rev. R. Gillanders was guest speaker at a meeting of the Women's Christian Temperance Union, Vernon branch, at the home of Mrs. William Campbell on Monday afternoon. President Mrs. Mildred Jones was in the chair.

Taking for his topic, "A Christian's Pathway," Mr. Gillanders spoke on Psalms 22, 23 and 24. Psalm 22 represents the cross, said Mr. Gillanders, with Psalm 24 the crown. The well known 23rd Psalm, "The Lord Is My Shepherd, I shall not want," is the pathway between.

The seven members who attended decided that the W.C.T.U. will continue to keep up a private ward in the New Jubilee Hospital, as this organization has done in the past in the present building.

Playing accompaniments on a piano-accompanist, Mrs. Crewe sang a solo, and a duet with Mrs. Pamela Hurlbut.

Mrs. Campbell served afternoon tea at the close of the afternoon.

To Make Complete Survey Of Hospitals in Province

There is to be a complete survey of all British Columbia hospitals. An important announcement was made by Dr. J. M. Hershey at a meeting of the Hospital Advisory Council in Vancouver.

Dr. Hershey, and the Hospital Insurance Service has obtained the services of James A. Hamilton and Associates, Hospital Consultants of Minneapolis, Minnesota.

The purpose of the survey is to determine the type of hospital needed in the province and to prepare a long range plan which will be a guide, not only to the B.C. Hospital Insurance Service but will be of assistance to the community themselves.

The results of this extensive survey, Dr. Hershey, "will be valuable both to the hospitals and the government."

An inventory has been made of existing hospital services and facilities, the quantity and type of hospital requirements needed will be assessed, taking into account health and population characteristics as well as economic and social conditions.

The survey will specify the number and type of hospital beds which should be constructed to meet any proposed expansion program and will make a general estimate of the cost involved.

In addition, there will be an appraisal of a number of hospitals with a presentation of the summary of the findings.

A further important aspect of the survey is its estimation of the number and types of professional skilled personnel needed to carry out the hospital program. It will also outline a training program designed to fill these needs.

Dr. Hershey pointed out that this is the first time that such a complete survey has been carried out in British Columbia and he felt sure that when it was completed, (Continued on Page 19)

Thousand Ton Potato Harvest by Salmon Valley Area Farmers

SALMON VALLEY, Oct. 19.—The harvesting of both early and late varieties of potatoes will be completed this week if fine weather prevails. The tonnage harvested will likely reach the thousand ton mark for this area. No apparent damage from blight has been witnessed and the growers believe that this is due largely to the dusting program effectively carried out during the summer.

W. R. Wilson returned last week from the Armstrong hospital and is now convalescing at the home of his son, W. P. Wilson.

E. H. Gamble and Miss C. E. Gamble spent a few days in Kamloops last week as guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Duthie. Upon their return, Mrs. Duthie accompanied them for a brief visit here, returning Sunday. Miss Gamble will make her home in Kamloops.

Escaped from Soviet Zone

After three months of dodging Soviet bullets and stealing food to keep alive in the Russian zone of Germany, British Joyce Klesch, her German husband, Vladimir, and their two young children, are shown on their arrival in London recently. Mrs. Klesch, 19-year-old daughter of a London brickmaker, joined her carpenter husband, a former P.O.W. in the Soviet zone last June. The couple were persecuted by the Russians, who heard them speaking English and suspected them of being spies. The Kleschs are shown with their children, Vladimir, Jr., 18 months, and Mannarie, 5 months.

New Auto Body Shop Started in Vernon

A new business was recently established in the city by Marshall Kolmatycki and Borden Chanasyk which will be known as the Superior Auto Body Shop. They will give service in general auto body work on all types and makes of vehicles.

The partners have 18 years' experience in this line of work and have a plentiful assortment of equipment to handle all jobs. Kolmatycki and Chanasyk have resided in Vernon for the past year, coming from Edmonton and Fort William.

The Superior Auto Body Shop is situated at 3005 - 34th Street.

Coalition Candidate Nominated for South Okanagan By-election

KELOWNA. — An enthusiastic meeting of Liberals and Conservatives last week selected R. D. Browne-Clayton, of Okanagan Mission, as the candidate who will contest the coming South Okanagan provincial by-election in support of the Coalition government. No other name was placed before the convention. Representative Liberals and Conservatives from all districts were present to select the candidate and to hear Hon. Herbert Anscomb, minister of finance and acting premier, and Hon. E. T. Kenney, minister of lands and forests.

Delegates present were 69 Liberals with three proxies and 54 Conservatives with 35 proxies. The Zenith Hall was comfortably filled by the general public.

W.I. in Grindrod District Reports Year's Activities

GRINDROD, Oct. 19.—The annual meeting of the Grindrod and District Women's Institute was held in the afternoon of October 6 in the Grindrod Hall. Mrs. W. G. Peacock acted as chairman of the meeting with 22 members present.

Mrs. P. Hipp read the auditor's report showing donations for the past year made to: Salvation Army, Solarium, Junior League, Enderby Memorial Hospital, Flood Relief, Children's Gardens, and prizes for the Women's Institute fall fair. Flowers were sent to the sick, wreaths were sent for funerals.

Receipts for the year totalled $284.34 and expenditures were $181.89.

The directors' report was read, showing that the Women's Institute held a very successful dance in March to raise funds. A bazaar was held in May, also for the purpose of funds.

A raspberry social was held in July to aid the Enderby Memorial Hospital.

Children's gardens were sponsored and prizes given to those having the best gardens. The Farmers' Institute also contributed some of the prize money towards this competition.

A girls' sewing club was sponsored and a very successful fall fair was held. The new officers are as follows: President, Mrs. J. Emeny; secretary - treasurer, Mrs. Irene Hipp; vice-president, Mrs. N. Anichoski; directors, Mrs. L. Lowes and Mrs. E. Skyrme.

The meeting was then adjourned and tea was served by Mrs. W. G. Peacock, Mrs. P. Peacock and Miss M. Bing.

Mrs. H. M. Wells and Donald were visitors to Vernon on Saturday.

Betty Halksworth spent the weekend at her parents' home here, returning to Vernon on Sunday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Monk and family, of Vernon, spent Sunday visiting relatives here.

Mr. and Mrs. S. J. Thomas, of Patricia, Alta., are spending a few days visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. Fyall.

Teen Town Mayor Explains Ideals Of Organization

"Teen Town is a province-wide organization of teen-agers, designed to assist young people in obtaining a knowledge of democratic government and to provide social and athletic activities for its members." These are the words of Vernon Teen Town Mayor Ian Morrice in a recent address in which he endeavored to answer the questions: "What is Teen Town? What are its functions and purposes?"—the general public has asked the questions many times of Teen Town members.

B.C. Teen Towns have spread like a prairie fire from a small beginning in Pentiction, under the leadership of the late Russel Bowering, first mayor and co-founder, to the provincial organization that now exists, embracing 50 centres and more than 11,000 young people from Victoria to the Rockies.

Teen towns keep in contact with each other by means of provincial and district conferences. These are held annually and three times a year respectively. In the past year the Okanagan Valley group has met in Vernon, Kelowna and Pentiction.

Vernon Teen Town has been hampered in its three-fold efforts in that it has no hall of its own in which the members can meet at any time. If this "dream" were realized, a building where the council could hold its meetings; a centre of activity for all Teen Town interests; social, athletic, and educational—Vernon Teen Town could become a powerful force in the community and an asset to the City of Vernon, members believe.

I.O.D.E. Member from Enderby to Attend Provincial Meeting

Mr. and Mrs. E. N. Peel left by motor for Vancouver on Friday, where they will spend a week's vacation. While at the Coast, Mrs. Peel, who is a member of the I.O.D.E. Provincial Executive, attended the semi-annual meeting on October 19. During their stay, Mr. and Mrs. Peel will visit the latter's sister, Mrs. R. Broe, a resident of the Coast city.

Mr. and Mrs. George Johnson and their daughter, Miss Edna Johnson, left at the weekend for Vancouver, where Mr. Johnson will receive treatment in Shaughnessy Military Hospital. Mrs. Johnson and her daughter attended a convention for beauty parlor operators, recently held in Vancouver.

William McSherry, who has been residing at Mara for some time, was a visitor in Enderby on Wednesday of last week.

S. I. Speers, who has been spending several weeks in Vancouver with his wife, who underwent an operation for her eyes recently, has returned home and reports that Mrs. Speers expects to be released from hospital shortly. Her operation was quite satisfactory. While at the Coast, Mr. Speers visited his son, Barrie, who is employed in Vancouver.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Perry and their young son returned to Enderby recently after a holiday spent with relatives and friends in Pentiction.

Construction Values At Pentiction Nearly Doubled This Year

PENTICTON.—With a September total of $158,200, Pentiction has piled up building figures for the first nine months of the year nearly double those for the corresponding period in 1947.

This year's nine-month total is $1,107,400 against 1947 figures for the same period of $601,540.

Noteworthy in the September figures is the total of permits for new homes, to a value of $200,000. Business permits issued were worth $61,000 and alterations accounted for an additional $6,400 of which the renovation of the school gym amounted to $6,000.

Girls Softball Teams In Oyama Sponsor Fall Dance

OYAMA, Oct. 19.—The two girls' softball teams of Oyama and Winfield were sponsors at a dance given last Friday evening, October 8, in the Oyama Community Hall, the proceeds of which are to be used for supplies for the teams for another year's activities.

A fairly good crowd was in attendance with music supplied by Joe Haber's "Kalamalkans."

R. Claridge and C. Gallagher were doormen. Refreshments and other arrangements were looked after by Misses T. Busch and J. Crosby.

Mrs. A. G. R. Prickard has as her guest for a time, Miss Steed, of Comox, V.I.

Mrs. Hugh Mangin and daughter, Daphne, of Victoria, were recent guests for a few days at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. Craig.

Pat and Jim Shore, of Vancouver, were visitors in Oyama over Thanksgiving weekend.

Miss Edna Kornitsky, nurse in training in St. Paul's Hospital, Vancouver, was a visitor at her home here for the long weekend.

Mrs. R. Enderby spent the Thanksgiving weekend in Seattle, visiting her son, Roy.

The members of the Oyama Anglican W.A. gathered at the Vicarage, home of Mrs. A. R. Lett, on Thursday, October 14. The occasion was a visit from Mrs. H. A. Solly, of Summerland, the diocesan president, who was guest speaker and gave a very interesting resume of the Dominion annual meeting recently held in Toronto.

Ten W.A. members were present and several Vernon visitors. A very pleasant afternoon was spent. Tea was served by Mrs. Lett and Mrs. S. Holtam.

In both name and form, the modern novel derives from northern Italy.

Pumpkin Pie!

Hallowe'en is coming round again! When your doorbell rings, be ready with this grand Purity Pumpkin Pie . . . made with Purity Flour . . . of course! Here's a melt-in-your-mouth pastry recipe.

PURITY PASTRY (enough for 2 pie shells)

Sift together 1½ cups Purity Flour and ½ teaspoon salt. Cut ¼ cup shortening into mixture with two knives, until it looks like very coarse meal. Add 3 tablespoons ice water gradually, mixing only enough to hold mixture together. Chill dough for 5 or 10 minutes and turn out on a lightly floured board. Roll with a light quick motion to ¼ inch thickness. Press dough lightly into pie plates, so that no air bubbles are trapped, and trim off the edge.

FILLING (1 pie)

Beat 2 eggs only until whites and yolks are well blended. Gradually beat in ¾ cup white sugar, and add 1 teaspoon cinnamon, ¼ teaspoon ground allspice, and a few grains of salt. Stir in ½ cup hot milk. Pour pumpkin and ½ cup hot milk. Pour into pie plate lined with pastry and bake in hot oven (450°F.) for first 10 minutes, then reduce temperature to moderate (350°F.) and bake for 20-25 minutes, or until filling is firm. Cool and serve with whipped cream or decorate with raisins. (Filling recipe may be doubled if you wish 2 pumpkin pies.)

Remember, Purity Flour, specially milled from finest hard wheat—is best for all your baking.

OF INTEREST TO WOMEN

Fashion Show Depicts Both Practical and Glamorous Styles for Women and Girls

Winter, 1948-49, in the world of women is one of style, glamor, grace and beauty. These highlights were emphasized at the Fashion Show in the Canadian Legion Centre last Thursday afternoon, sponsored by the ladies' section of the Vernon Golf Club. The audience witnessed a pageant of practical and luxurious garments, ranging from nightwear and negligees to formal evening attire and fur coats. Real flower arrangements in keeping with the various ensembles varied from carnations tinted blue for the coiffure of a silver-haired model, to the orchid which mounted the ribbon-streamer prayer-book carried by the bride in the wedding entourage which climaxed the show.

Final touches to the models was the makeup, applied by Mrs. J. A. Douglas, who also advised as to the correct perfume for day and evening wear.

Mrs. Fred Dean, captain of the ladies' section of the golf club, opened the show and welcomed the visitors. A running commentary was given by Miss Dagmar Herry, Mrs. C. W. Gaunt Stevenson played liting airs on the piano for the models "on parade."

Mrs. Charles J. McDowell was general convener, assisted by Mrs. Everard Clarke, Mrs. A. J. Marshall-Wright, Mrs. J. A. Douglas and Mrs. Fred Dean. Mrs. Russell Neil and Mrs. Chester Nolan convoked afternoon tea, assisted by the Women's Auxiliary to the Canadian Legion.

The affair was made possible through the co-operation of the following Vernon firms: The French Shoppe Limited, Eve's Ladies' Wear, Horlick's Fine Furs, Douglas Pharmacy Limited, Harris Flower Shop, Dean's Jewelry Limited, McDonald's Footwear, Charles Fullford, and A. J. Walker, manager, Hudson's Bay Company. All flower arrangements were made and donated by Harris Flower Shop.

A film in technicolor showing a success beauty course was seen after the fashion show through arrangements made by Mrs. Douglas.

Models were: Mrs. R. A. Ferguson, Mrs. Thelma Heggie; Mrs. C. J. McDowell, Mrs. Mary Krivenko, Mrs. Fred Dean, Mrs. Don Harwood, Miss Patsy Laidman, Miss Sue "Jimmy" Neil, Miss Charlotte McDowell, Miss Doris Nicklin, Miss Rosalie DeMoore and Miss Julie Winstanley.

Lounging pyjamas in new styles, cut for warmth and comfort, displayed the latest creations for relaxed evenings at home and dainty dreams. In "pink" for those who prefer pastels, through to rich and sophisticated black; in plaid for the teenager, who could use the slacks for double duty for sports wear, not forgetting the exquisite white, satin ensemble, all were beautiful in cut, fit and design.

Lovely was the white satin housecoat, splashed with green, as exotic as the California from which it originated. Black for glamour and Chinese red for gaiety were also shown in relaxing fireside robes.

For Sports Wear

Women are becoming increasingly sports-minded. In keeping with the modern trend were versatile out-of-doors ensembles, ranging from black and white checked slacks, with white sweater, short jacket and black beret-beanie, to the ski outfit, with downhill slacks, hooded jacket, ski boots and woolen gloves in tone, which made spectators think of glittering snow-clad slopes on a sparkling winter day. Teenagers wear was shown with poise and grace by the models, and ensembles were carefully chosen with warm and blended shades, making use of the popular pullover sweaters, made by nationally-known firms, in white, black and soft pastels.

Dignified and Smart

The older woman was not forgotten in the parade of style. Soft and graceful chic was evidenced in one grey wool coat with new over-the-shoulder collar and mist-blue oyster-plumed hat. All accessories in the group showing coats and suits were of soft leathers.

The popular off-the-face hats were shown in many variations. One in particular in "autumn turf" was shown with a coat of the same shade ready for Fifth Avenue; or perhaps from Fifth Avenue. All top coats had swing backs with emphasis on smart collars and fur trim. For the club woman, or for lunch in a smart restaurant was a tailored suit in grey; as well as a more softly styled model, the latter in the popular and hard wearing grey gabardine, and worn with accessories. For the dark woman was a semi-dressmaker model in Chinese red, with black accessories.

In this group also were shown the new bonnet-shaped hats, with veiling ties.

That perennial favorite black, was shown in suits, coats and dresses, suitable for all ages. One ensemble was of black from tip of plumed hat to toe of patent leather pump, unrelieved except for a triple strand of pearls worn under the collar.

Glittering costume jewelry in bracelets, clips and chokers were selected with care and worn with discrimination that their bright accents would do the "wearer proud."

Ruffling taffeta was used in some of the glamorous evening gowns. One was of blossom-pink with the new waist arrangement of real earrings in exactly the same shade without foliage. A strapless evening gown with black lace bodice mounted over pink, with black bouffant skirt, was enhanced with a shoulder spray of pink Delight roses. This ensemble was offset with glittering golden sandals and evening bag.

Luxury and Comfort

Bringing "ohs" and "ahs" from the audience was the final group, featuring fur coats. These were of Russian squirrel, mink-dyed muskrat, Hudson seal, Persian lamb and brown Canadian squirrel; all with clever collar arrangements and adjustable sleeve length; and one with a hood. These were worn with formal evening gowns with camellia and rose corsages, and made every woman in the audience long for a party date in just such an ensemble.

With evening wear was worn subtle perfumes, suitable for life-after-dark. Evening and dinner gowns were in the latest mode in muted shades; some with silk skirts and sequin trim, suitable for all ages.

The grand finale was the bridal entourage, with Miss Patsy Laidman the white satin-clad bride, her shimmering gown styled with full court train nubbled by an embroidered veil. In sky blue and gold respectively were her attendants, Miss Julia Winstanley and Miss Doris Nicklin. Their chrysanthemum bouquets and hair sprays were identical, and in warm color contrast to their floor-length, formal gowns.

Miss Charlotte McDowell drew the 12 door prizes, of home-permanent sets, assisted by the donor, Mrs. J. A. Douglas, and Miss Dagmar Herry.

Musie Kindergarten Studio Opens Here

Mrs. Josephine Karon, A.T.M., I.R.S.M., a registered music teacher and a new owner to Vernon, in opening a studio at her home, 3004 32nd Avenue, where she will teach the Kelly-Kirby Kindergarten Method of music to youngsters between the ages of three to eight years.

This, explained Mrs. Karon in an interview, is the basic method of teaching music, and the child student can go on to any instruction in piano playing or singing, from her school. A piano in the home of the student is not necessary. Classes will be held hourly every weekday morning with special classes for school children.

Famous Woman Mountaineer in Visit to Guides

Girl Guide companies of the North Okanagan Division were visited by Mrs. Don Munday, noted Canadian mountaineer, during the week of October 5 to 8.

Mrs. Munday is honorary member of the Alpine Club of Canada and Ladies' Alpine Club of London, England. She is provincial woodcraft adviser for Girl Guides, and has been giving training on these lines to Guides of the Division, the highlight of which was the showing of films of Alpine flora and fauna, as well as views of Alpine country. Many of her pictures, as well as her husband's, were prize winners in photographic competitions.

The Alpine Club honored Mrs. Munday this summer by awarding her the "Silver Rope," which entitles the holder to lead parties on Alpine Club expeditions. She is the only Canadian woman to hold this qualification.

As well as being a keen mountaineer and guide, Mrs. Munday does much work in the St. John Ambulance Brigade in Vancouver, and served during the crisis in the Fraser Valley last spring during the flood period.

While in the North Okanagan, Mrs. Munday was the guest of the District Commissioner, Miss Grace Nichols, at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Nichols, of Vernon.

Silver Wedding Observed By Armstrong Couple

ARMSTRONG, Oct. 10.—On Monday, Rev. and Mrs. P. E. Rummals held "open house," the occasion being their 25th wedding anniversary, which actually fell on Sunday, October 17. Some 70 friends called at the parsonage during the afternoon and evening to extend their congratulations and best wishes and enjoy the hospitality of Mr. and Mrs. Rummals and their family.

Royal Conservatory of Music in Toronto.

Many Enjoy Water Color Exhibition

The exhibition of water color paintings by Miss Sophia Atkinson, held in the Canadian Legion Centre on October 8 and 9, brought high praise from those who attended, numbering more than 100.

Miss Atkinson, who has been given this trip to Canada by the Canadian Pacific Railway Company, included in her exhibit some of her paintings especially selected by that company. These were studies of the colorful Indians and tepees of the foothills of Alberta.

The work of the artist shows diversity in character; the strength and grandeur of her mountain studies contrasting with the delicacy of misty effects. She caught the moment here with great subtlety, and their color and design display much imagination and sensitiveness.

Miss Atkinson plans an exhibit in the Public Library, Kelowna, for two weeks, commencing October 16.

The travelling pictures committee expect to sponsor in November an exhibit from Vancouver of paintings of Stanley Park.

A 73-year-old woman, Mrs. P. R. Holt, of Lachine, Quebec, took up the challenge of her family, who dared her to fly around the world. She did it, "just to show them."

Mrs. Holt flew from Montreal to San Francisco, thence to Australia, on to England, and recently returned to Canada. During her stay in England, her husband joined her and they went on to Paris, where they attended two night clubs and the grand opera. However, she is now glad to be home again in Lachine.

Autumn Foliage, Flowers Enhance Wedding at Mara

MARA, Oct. 18.—At a four o'clock ceremony the afternoon of Saturday, October 16, at the home of the bride's brother-in-law and sister, Capt. and Mrs. J. C. Keswick, Miss Anne Walde exchanged marriage vows with Eugene Witala, youngest son of Mrs. Alma Witala and the late Victor Witala. Rev. C. G. MacKenzie performed the rites.

The room was prettily decorated with maple leaves and fall flowers, which made an effective color foil for the ceremony, performed in the presence of immediate and close friends of the couple. The bride wore a dove and was attended by Miss Birkendahl, of Vernon. Miss Mara was her cousin's sister.

After the ceremony, a supper was served by the bride and groom. The couple expect to spend a honeymoon at Mara.

Clothes will come out of the closet with fewer wrinkles and even slight damp from a late pressing job or lounge will crease badly when in luggage.

What Is A Credit Union?

That question has been asked by the thousands of British Columbia Citizens. Briefly, the answer is:

A CREDIT UNION is an association of persons united by some common bond or community of interest, joined together in a co-operative endeavour for the following purposes:

1. To encourage thrift by providing a safe, convenient and attractive medium for the investment of the savings of its members.
2. To promote industry, eliminate usury, and increase the purchasing power of its members by enabling them to borrow for productive or other beneficial purposes at a reasonable cost.
3. To train its members in business methods and self-government, and bring them to a realization of the value of co-operation.

BAHA'I WORLD FAITH

DIVINE LOVE is the highest ideal for the individual. DIVINE JUSTICE represents the highest attainment for the community. The world... has shrunk into one interdependent community. Any decision in such a community cannot be considered just unless it is partial to none. As long as a world conscience is not produced, world justice is impossible, and without world justice, world peace is unobtainable. Baha'u'llah's World Community is imbued with a world conscience and is creating an instrument for the administration of world justice. In this lies its great significance for the modern world.

Expansion Planned by Anglican Youth Group

Miss Irene Palfrey, of Vernon, was the only representative from the interior at the 18th annual Anglican Young People's Association Convention in St. Michael's Church, Vancouver, held Thanksgiving weekend. Rev. L. A. C. Smith, of All Saints' Church, was Resource Leader.

"I wish more could have gone down. I found the convention most inspiring," said Miss Palfrey on her return. There were 130 delegates, most of them from Vancouver Island, points up the coast, New Westminster and Vancouver. Asked what she thought of the A.Y.P.A. movement: "I am very interested in it, and anxious to see more activity in Vernon with increased membership 'most of all,'" she said.

"I found other people at the convention most friendly. We mixed like old pals. So many asked about activities in Vernon, and were sorry the convention could not have been held here, as it was first arranged."

Miss Palfrey explained to The Vernon News that the four principles of the A.Y.P.A. are: worship, work, fellowship and education. In their regular meetings one of these four principles are stressed alternately. "Wider horizons" was one of the problems attacked by this informal group of young people last weekend.

Ideas were discussed as to how to publicize further the movement. "From our group we hope will spring tomorrow's adult church membership," she declared.

In Vernon, attendance at meetings averages 15 to 20. The age limit is between 18 and 26 years. Present plans are to greet any young people attending regular church services, and try to arouse their interest in the A.Y.P.A. Members may also spread their campaign to include young people not affiliated with other churches.

President Ted Symonds, vice-president Miss Irene Palfrey, secretary Miss Shirley Morgan and treasurer Miss Rhoda Speers were initiated at last Sunday evening's service in All Saints' Church.

Rev. L. A. C. Smith hopes to start a senior branch, to be affiliated with Chi Ro groups formed elsewhere in the province, with the age group from 26 to 40 years; also a Junior A.Y.P.A. for young people between 15 and 17 years.

Alterations to Coldstream W.I. Hall Are Planned

Coldstream Women's Institute has resumed activities after two months' vacation, and a regular meeting was held on Tuesday, October 12, with president Mrs. E. A. Rendell in the chair.

Members are hoping that work on improvements to the W.I. Hall can be commenced soon. This work includes remodeling of the kitchen and dressing rooms; adding two club rooms, a stage and furnace room.

The W.I. has received several generous cash donations, and a number of men have offered to help with the work. When the improvements are under way it is hoped the whole district will assist.

To help raise funds for these improvements, the Institute will hold old time dances every two weeks in the Coldstream W.I. Hall this winter. The first such dance is scheduled for Friday, October 29.

The late Mrs. M. A. Curwen, former president, inaugurated the Harvest Suppers, which became a popular feature, in which many Vernon people took part. This year's supper will be held on Thursday, November 18.

Qualifying Show By Students in School Agricultural Clubs

A "qualifying show" when 125 birds will be exhibited in the Vernon High School Poultry Club, as well as 22 classes of potatoes, will be held in the basement of Vernon High School tomorrow, Friday, afternoon between 2 and 5 p.m. William Rich, Dominion A.P.A. Judge, and R.O.P. Inspector, will make awards for the poultry in the seven classes.

Morrice S. Middleton will judge the potato classes in the two Potato Clubs.

Young people between the ages of 10 and 20 years form the membership of the clubs, with Howard Thornton, organizer.

It is the hope of Mr. Thornton that the work of the clubs can be expanded, and to include swine and calf clubs in this branch of education.

Prizes will be awarded to the winners in Friday's contests. These include money awards from Victoria and Mulford ducks, bugged by Mr. Thornton.

Concerning the Mattress

Turn the mattress at least once a week. See that firm handles are attached to the mattress so that it turns easily.

A quilted mattress pad used between the mattress and the sheet will give added sanitation to the mattress.

How long has it been since your mattress was sterilized and done over? It is estimated that approximately 20 percent of the mattresses in daily use in Canadian homes are about 10 years of age.

Mara Social Items

MARA, Oct. 18.—The dance on Saturday evening, sponsored by the Mara Badminton Club, was a huge success, many people attending from outside points.

John Kuchuck left last week for Williams Lake, where he expects to visit for a week.

Elmer Makella spent last Saturday in Vernon for a short visit.

Mr. and Mrs. George Stevenson, of Vancouver, who are honeymooning in the Okanagan Valley, paid a brief visit to Mara over the weekend. Mr. Stevenson's former home was in Mara, but he moved to the Coast a few years ago.

Don't forget to transplant some of your parsley bed to decorative pots for the kitchen during the cold months. They not only give a homey touch to the kitchen, but many a pretty one to the dishes served from there.

Quinine was isolated for the first time in 1820.

W.A. to Legion Has Busy Fall Program Under Way

The Women's Auxiliary to the Canadian Legion are pursuing their fall activities with keen interest. Highlighting their projects is the canteen service, when the members cater for dinners and banquets in the Legion Centre, and operate a tea room for friends and out of town Legion W.A. members.

The group is planning to commence its winter series of card parties, which will commence Tuesday, November 2, in the Legion Centre, to be held every fortnight. Members are sewing and knitting for the Queen Charlotte Hospital, in London, England, and have more recently undertaken sewing for the Vernon Jubilee Hospital.

Auxiliary ladies checked at the cloak room for the Harvest Ball, sponsored by the Women's Hospital Auxiliary, helped on recent tag days for the Pythian Sisters Library fund, the Canadian National Institute for the Blind, and served refreshments at the Red Cross Mobile Blood Donor Clinic.

The sum of $438.13 lies in the treasury for the new hospital, which will be added to; but what form the Auxiliary's contribution will take has not yet been decided. Mrs. B. McLeod is convener of this activity.

Two delegates from the Vernon W.A. attended the zone meeting in Kamloops held at the end of September.

After buying a can of paint, turn it upside down overnight, and when opening it the next morning it will not have to be stirred so long.

If an enamelled saucepan happens to fall, care should be taken to avoid using it for some time afterwards, as the chipping continues for several hours after the accident occurs.

To rid the coffee pot of stale coffee odor, cleanse with a baking soda solution. Rub more soda around seams and spout where odors are most apt to cling. Rinse well before making coffee.

Orphan No Longer

Almost any community in British Columbia can make out a good case for improved highway connections or extensions, so general is the need for roads in the rapidly growing Interior of this province.

But the combined action initiated in Vernon last week by four Boards of Trade acting on behalf of their respective communities has some special and important aspects. Since it was first opened to general travel almost four decades ago, the Monashee highway—the connecting link between the Okanagan and the Arrow Lakes and beyond to Alberta—has been an orphan.

If the Boards in Lumby, Nakusp, the Lower Arrow Lakes and Vernon can bring the authorities to view the situation in the Monashee in its proper perspective then this highway's orphan years should be behind.

In the larger view of inter-provincial roads, the Monashee has a good claim. Its altitude and grades are lower and hence easier to keep open all year round; it taps a rich territory largely undeveloped because of lack of communication; and it has unsurpassed attractions for travellers.

These claims may be cited without detracting for any other existing routes. The Boards are more concerned, however, with immediate objectives and this is the basis upon which submissions are now to be made to Victoria.

The first objective is to have the highway brought to such a stage of development that it can be made travel-worthy throughout the year. After sixty years of settlement and development, British Columbia still has no means of access by road to the prairies during the winter. Residents along the Arrow Lakes are isolated and therefore see their areas lacking in progress.

Insurance In the Future

Perhaps the least recognized of the very real benefits to Canada of the higher farm incomes of the past several years is the trend for young people to stay on the land as a permanent means of livelihood.

Farming in almost any branch today provides a respectable living for the intelligent, diligent man or woman. Coupled with the many other benefits of security, individuality, healthfulness, agriculture today is a preferred pursuit. True it is not easy and success demands a combination of work and intelligence beyond what is needed in very many urban occupations.

Written into legislation of the Dominion and also in some provinces including British Columbia are statutes designed to ensure a continuing higher price for farm products. Chief among these are the various support programs designed on the lines of the parity legislation of the United States. By this legislation, Canada is preparing to bolster the largest group in the Dominion—the farmers—against a repetition of the below cost of production prices of the depression; prices which were generally far below returns for manufacturing.

Agriculture would thus seem to have a relatively sound future and so long as the current international tension means continued expenditures for defence commodity values should continue at a high level.

The future for agriculture appears far more certain, far brighter than a decade ago. But what is being done to ensure that the future farmers of Canada secure a sound enough practical training to enable them to farm successfully?

The answer is, very little, considering that Canada's primary industry is agriculture. Agricultural schools, for the vast majority of boys and girls, are too expensive and too far away. Various universities, including the University of British Columbia, give very considerable aid through their extension departments.

But the vast majority of farm-bred boys and girls—to whom the farm today seems to offer a future—must depend solely for their success on their own efforts, coupled, of course, with the excellent advice available from Provincial and Dominion Departments of Agriculture and Boys' and Girls' Clubs.

Our own—university—apparently recognizes this situation. The Extension Department has offered a large number of short courses, and eight weeks training for rural young people will be held in the University's Youth Training Centre early in the year. One difficulty is that only a comparatively few will be able to attend. Only a "selected number" of the young people recommended can be accommodated, according to the prospectus.

Fine as this work the University is doing is, it cannot meet the needs of more than a small percentage of rural youth.

The question of an agricultural school to serve the Interior areas has been raised in the Legislature and submissions have repeatedly been made to Victoria, but all so far without result. The arguments in favor of such a practical teaching of agriculture appear not to weigh as heavily as the financial outlay. Apparently, we are content to spend millions of dollars each year on social services, from which the province secures no return, but cannot provide some thousands to help ensure the future of our farming communities.

Ten Years Ago—Thursday, October 20, 1938.

On the strength of two factors, with the outcome of both of them depending on Hitler of Germany, depends the success or failure of Prime Minister Chamberlain's plan for general European settlement, so Captain Elmore Phillipot, M.C., of Victoria, told an audience here Wednesday evening. The Okanagan Valley and the Vernon area in particular have been focal points for British Columbia sportsmen during the past six days, the drawing power for the hundreds being the opening of pheasant season—before a large and truly international audience of 350 persons, the Vernon Women's Institute presented its second International Revue in the Scout Hall on Wednesday evening. Five Vernon business firms accepted forged cheques on Saturday last and police are now searching for the man who passed them.

Twenty Years Ago—Thursday, October 25, 1928.

Fire took a heavy toll in Vernon this week. In two hours the plant, machinery, stock and building of Bulmans Limited was reduced to ashes. The result today is that 100 persons are out of work and the loss is estimated at $105,000. Thomas Bulman states that he will start immediately rebuilding the dehydrator if the necessary capital is available. The total attendance at the Kalamalka Lake beach during the summer months was 18,355, and on July 22 the greatest number attended, there being 1,350 on the beach that day. The total number of cars registered at the Vernon Tourist Park so far this year is estimated at 745, with 2,720 persons. A series of events which occurred sometime on Tuesday night gave the Okanagan Valley police forces some excitement. Three Enderby business houses were robbed, an automobile was wrecked on the road at Lansdowne, and a pool of blood was noticed on the highway. Another pool of blood which was found on top of a box car which reached Vernon at six o'clock Wednesday morning caused some uneasiness. There is thought to be connection between all of these events, but this has not been established.

Thirty Years Ago—Thursday, October 24, 1918.

Recent dispatches received here announce that Lieut.-Col. G. C. Johnston, commanding the 2nd C.M.R., has been awarded the Croix de Guerre for conspicuous gallantry in the Canadian operations south of the Somme in August last. Lieut.-Col. Johnston, who is a resident of this city, had already possessed the D.S.O. and Military Cross. Late last week 21 cases of influenza had been reported by local doctors. These appear to be of a rather mild type, and in a climate such as this it is not expected that the disease will develop in its malignant form. Owing to the decision to ban all public meetings the City Council is preventing the spread of Spanish influenza. The meeting which was to have been addressed by Sir Charles Hubert Tupper has been indefinitely postponed. The internment camp has been quarantined because of the outbreak of influenza and neither men nor officers will be allowed to visit the city. Owing to the changes that are to be made on the lines and switch board at the electric power plant, the city will be without electricity between the hours of 1 and 4 p.m. on Sunday.

Forty Years Ago—Thursday, October 22, 1908.

The military ball given by the Okanagan Mounted Rifles last week proved to be a thoroughly enjoyable event. Although the crowd was not quite so large as expected, those who did attend pronounced it an unqualified success and all are looking forward to the next dance of the series which the O.M.R. is giving during the winter months. At the meeting of the City Council this week the bylaw to raise $2,200 for an electric fire alarm system and $3,000 for street lights were given their second readings. A Stamford, caretaker of the public reading room, announced this week a reward of $10 for information leading to conviction of parties guilty of stealing magazines from the reading room table. This is one of the meanest kind of petty theft, which unfortunately appears to be too prevalent in the city, and if any person is caught he will be prosecuted to the full extent of the law. A friendly rifle match at the Armstrong range between teams from the Okanagan Mounted Rifles, the Vernon Civilian Rifle Association and the Armstrong Infantry Corps took place with the Civilian Rifles winning by the narrow margin of three points.

Fifty Years Ago—Thursday, October 20, 1898.

Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Nell have returned from an extensive trip, taking in the New Westminster Fair and the Coast cities, and have taken possession of their cottage home on Tronson Street, one of the prettiest residences in Vernon—Joseph Harwood, the popular and enterprising proprietor of Express Number 3, arrived in this city from New Westminster early this week. "Joe" is on the warpath for the individual who pilfered his water-proof and a suit of underclothing from the train between Skamoose and the Coast. On going into the dining car he left his valuables on the seat and when he returned he found that someone had made off with them. James Banks has disposed of two of his mining claims in this district, the Grand Times and Hidden Treasure, and interests of several others, to F. O. Howe, of San Francisco. J. Cosgrave has secured the contract for 80 feet of tunnel on the Grand Times. After the end of this month the daily train services on the S. & O. branch line will be discontinued and trains will arrive in Vernon every other day. The Vernon Jubilee Hospital this week received a large number of donations of fruit, vegetables and preserves from farms throughout the district.

Most Anything

By STUART FLEMING

Like a lot of other people, I was extremely interested to learn through reading last week's issue of this newspaper that the Vernon Board of Trade is still in existence. Like a lot of people, I thought it had died, or at the very least was in the throes of immobilizing paralysis.

It has always been my impression that a Board of Trade should be the complete exemplification of a community's spirit and ideals. During the past three years it has seemed to me that the Vernon Board of Trade has shown about as much energy as a turtle stricken by the gout; about as much imagination as a cluster of amoeba floating aimlessly in the midst of the primeval ooze.

Does this seem, perhaps, a little harsh? It is meant to. This is no time to allow "vitalization" or "inclusive bumbling" to impede the progress and development of this city and I can think of no other terms except these with which to describe the activities and achievements of the Vernon Board of Trade over the past few years. Whatever growth Vernon has made during and since the war has come to it naturally because of its geographical position and the wealth in resources of its environs. No organization or group of men in the city can take credit for this growth except those men who located the city where it is at its beginnings. But if the city is to continue to grow and if its district is to continue to prosper then there must be now a revitalization of the spirit that once made Vernon the business and administrative centre of the Okanagan.

It would be foolish, of course, to blame all of the city's ills on the Board of Trade, just as it would be to lay them to the account of the City Council. However, an indifferent Board of Trade can contribute to a town's decline. The attitude of too many Vernon businessmen toward the Board can be summed up in a recent comment of one city merchant who, on being asked why he did not attend Board of Trade meetings, replied, "I won't have anything to do with that outfit. It is run by a clique." Whether his contention is true I wouldn't care to hazard a guess, but his attitude is childish. A clique hasn't a hope in the world of dominating any organization if the general membership does not wish to be dominated. A clique is a very easy thing to break if a little determined effort is made, but one sure way to guarantee its continued existence is to stay on the sidelines and sulk.

It is often said that Vernon suffers from inadequate publicity, that other Interior towns have a much better success of their propaganda and have, as a result, accrued greater rewards. This, I am prepared to believe. When in Vancouver early this summer I had occasion to visit the Tourist Information Bureau there. I noticed that the publicity folders issued in the name of the Vernon Board of Trade were pamphlets printed in this city ten years ago. One of them had been brought up to date insofar that the population figure had been changed from "over 5,000" to "10,137." A study of the folder, however, reveals that the city can no longer live up to its publicity of a decade ago.

For instance, it claims that the tax rate compares favorably with any other community in British Columbia. Perhaps this was once true, it isn't now.

It is reported that Vernon has 63 miles of roads, practically all of which are hard surfaced or dust-proofed. This will be news to a lot of Vernon people.

The Vernon Jubilee Hospital is fully equipped to meet the hospitalization needs of the city and district. With any luck this may be true by the end of 1949.

Vernon is excellently equipped with educational facilities. There is still no guarantee that this will be true even in 1949.

The Vernon Golf Club has a lovely nine-hole course. A number of men and women are endeavoring to make this statement come true, but they need considerably more backing from the community than they are getting. If the Board of Trade figures a good golf course is worth advertising perhaps it could expend a little effort in securing the good golf course.

The pheasant hunting is America's finest. Once upon a time, maybe, not now. It could have been maintained but the community was too busy milking the trade to take the necessary steps to preserve it. The Board of Trade cannot escape from the truth of that entirely scotchless.

The whole picture is not very pretty. This town used to know how to look after itself but it seems to have lost the art. The entire blame cannot be laid at the door of the Board of Trade but at the same time I fail to see that in the last few years the Vernon Board of Trade has given the aggressive leadership that the city appears to need.

Buzz of Doom

Science is working on still another dastardly device. This time it is one to do in mosquitoes. It is a trap which electrocutes the gentleman mosquito after he has been lured into a wire cage by the recorded siren song of a mosquito femme fatale.

Cornell University has had a team of mosquito men down in the Cuban swamps perfecting this ingenious booby trap. On a trial run, one of the traps, probably baited with an irresistible contralto buzz, is reported to have brought 40,000 male mosquitos to their doom which, offhand, seems like an awful lot.

One thing that sticks in the craw though, is the basic injustice of this gadget. After all, it is the lady mosquito that goes out for blood and harbors the malaria germ. But there is some solace in the thought that it would be only a question of time and arithmetic until her crimes caught up with her too.—Winnipeg Free Press.

Fifth Column

The Communist party of Britain must be regarded by the Pollituro as a pretty weak sister. It seems unable to require any serious strength openly in the British Labour party. It never gets any significant vote at the polls. But the Communist party is attempting to repair its failures on the surface by more energetic measures of an indirect sort.

To embarrass the government and to undermine Britain's recovery, the Communist party has issued a statement condemning the present freeze on wages, high taxes, rearmament and the Marshall Plan. It is telling the British workers that they should produce less and pay less taxes. In other words, they should promote inflation and the demoralization of the whole economy. All the hardships of the British people and their natural dislike of taxes and restrictions are to be exploited by the Communists as the faithful fifth column of Russia.

Automobile Blaze Brings Loss to Enderby Pioneer

ENDERBY, Oct. 18.—Harry Burton, Enderby pioneer and well known through the North Okanagan, had an unpleasant experience on his seventy-second birthday last week.

His car caught fire, which did considerable damage, not only to the vehicle, but also to the equipment he had packed inside at the time. Mr. Burton was preparing to visit his daughter, Mrs. Walter Burton, at Mabel Lake, and had just turned around the hills where he had been prospecting.

Mr. Burton had just commenced prospecting when a neighbor raised the alarm. Grabbing a can of water, Mr. Burton rushed out and endeavored to smother the blaze, which required several buckets of water. The car was completely destroyed. Included in the car had been a large amount of gasoline in the car but the fire started inside the car, but the cause is unknown.

Cadet Officials Plan Activities In Air Training

Flying Officer S. Hoyer, Commanding Officer of the Vernon Air Cadets, recently attended a conference held in Vancouver where members of the Provincial and Dominion Air Cadet League and high ranking R.C.A.F. officers discussed policies and training programs for the coming year.

The lack of a suitable building in which to meet and carry out training is the chief problem confronting the cadets at the present time. Some reconversion has been completed in the cadet quarters in the Vernon Army Camp and the squadron will be able to resume technical activities.

On Monday evening approximately 20 cadets had their first school of the year in preparation for the marksmanship teams which will represent the squadron in competition.

Any boys between the ages of 14 and 19 are welcome to join the cadets and take advantage of this highly technical training. Lectures on navigation and armament will commence Monday, October 25, at 7 p.m. in the Air Cadet hut.

"Bitter Price"

I admire the extreme frankness and honesty with which the editorial column, "Most Anything" wades into the issue of gambling. I cannot say that I admire the conclusions.

In the first place, from the point of view of sheer practical economics, "sweepstakes" are not the answer to the financing of schools and hospitals. Experience has shown that hospitals supported in this way are, generally speaking, worse off than in countries where the citizens assume responsibility for direct support for services rendered. The patients in hospitals supported by sweepstakes assume that they should have free care or at least greatly reduced rates. The municipalities that legitimize these sweepstakes are reluctant to tax the people directly for the legitimate claims of such institutions. Thus the hospitals find themselves depending upon the whims of a gambling public. Given the condition of war or of restricting legislation prohibiting the sale of tickets, the institutions of human welfare are cut off from their major means of support. The hospital boards of our land should be the most ardent opponents of any such suggestion which may look good on the surface but underneath has great repercussions.

"Appreciation, Gratitude"

Editor, The Vernon News; Sir: I would like to express my appreciation and gratitude to the City Council, the City Engineer, the Old Timers with their vision and foresight, and all those responsible for the wonderful way in which you have marked your streets and avenues.

You can go in any direction with confidence knowing that all streets are in order. No doubt or hesitation as to whether the street you are seeking is one or six blocks away. You know definitely where it is in the pattern and you are able to proceed directly to your destination.

To visitors, this is something out of the ordinary, and one which evokes the greatest admiration and respect for this progressive town.

Another source of enjoyment is the good music, to which you are invariably treated on your local station. And for the first time in my life I have listened to a woman announcer and enjoyed her. Let us hope that she keeps to her own natural voice and doesn't spoil it with some adopted accent, which goes to make women announcers unbearable.

And unless you have ever lived in rainy Vancouver you will never know the happy joy that this wonderful sunshine brings.

K. CLINTON.

Principal of the Vernon Junior and Senior High School, Mr. Falconer was elected to the presidency of the Okanagan Valley Teachers' Association at the group's annual convention, held in Penticton recently. Last year he was vice-president of the association. Named principal of the senior city school in 1947, Mr. Falconer also has served on the Valley executive for a number of terms.

City Insurance Men Form Club

John Bennett, of New Westminster, vice-president of the Life Underwriters' Association of Canada, visited Vernon last Wednesday and spoke briefly to all district full-time life insurance men. At the meeting which was held in the National Hotel, a district Life Underwriters' Club was formed and Eric Olmsted, C.L.U., was appointed contact man between the local club and national headquarters in Toronto.

The Life Underwriters' Association is a national organization with local branches in all the larger centres throughout the country. Its object is to assist all life insurance men through educational work and to encourage study, leading to the Chartered Life Underwriter's degree. Its purpose is to raise the standard of service to the insuring public.

In the larger centres it is customary to hold monthly meetings at which the problems of the business are thoroughly discussed, but as the number of full-time life insurance men in Vernon does not warrant a local association, it was decided to form a Life Underwriters' Club, with direct affiliation with the Toronto office.

The members of the newly formed club are: Eric Olmsted, C.L.U., of the Monarch Life Assurance Company; Barry Wood, of the North American Life Assurance Company; and Owen Kam, of the Excelsior Life Assurance Company. These men are members of the National Association and now will become active members of the Vernon Club. Others include Cliff McWilliams, of the Canada Life Assurance Company; Gerry Hilton, of the Mutual Life Assurance Company; Ray McDonnell, of the Great West Life Assurance Company; E. T. Ouchi, of the Dominion Life Assurance Company, and Clem Smith and Pat Worth, of the Sun Life Assurance Company.

The club plans to hold periodic meetings and an annual convention of all the full-time insurance men from Penticton to Kamloops.

Survey Already Made For Building Bridge Kelowna to Westbank

KELOWNA.—A preliminary survey of a bridge across Lake Okanagan, linking Kelowna with Westbank, has already been made by the provincial government, W. A. C. Bennett, former M.L.A., revealed here when he spoke to the Kelowna Junior Chamber of Commerce recently. Mr. Bennett said the proposed bridge would consist of a 1,500 foot centre span with two 750 foot end spans.

"The bridge will cross the lake at the narrowest point which will bring the approach through the city park," he declared. He predicted that when the Hope-Princeton Highway is completed, the tremendous increase in traffic through the Okanagan will warrant a bridge. The present ferry system will not be able to cope with the influx of tourists, he said, adding that now is the time to start a fight for a third ferry. He thought

Ask Regulated Zone For Kamloops Area

KAMLOOPS.—Establishment of a "regulated zone" south, east and west of Kamloops townsite is to be requested of the provincial government by city council.

The decision has been taken by the councillors but the application has not yet been formally filed. It should go forward shortly.

If it is granted by the provincial government, subdivisions, construction standards and sanitary arrangements in the "regulated area" would be uniform and would be administered by a provincial government appointee.

Authority for the "regulated zone" lies in the province's town planning act. Kelowna was the first to avail itself of the act, and the "regulated zone" regulations have been in force in the area immediately surrounding the Okanagan city for nearly two years.

KAMLOOPS.—A gruesome find by two teen-agers has ended six months of speculation about the fate of William Henry George, 67-year-old father of W. E. George, 702 Victoria, with whom he had resided since October 1943. Of his four daughters, two reside in B.C.; Mrs. A. J. Amey at Deep Cove and Mrs. A. H. Anderson at New Westminster.

He vanished March 20 leaving a note for his son announcing he had "gone for a long walk . . . If I don't come back don't look for me."

A decomposed body—which Mr. George on Tuesday afternoon of last week identified as his father's—was found Saturday afternoon by 12-year-old Warren Harrison, 555 Eighth, and 10-year-old Gordon Tansley, 627 Dominion.

Identification was possible only by means of Mr. George's walking stick near the corpse.

The body came upon the body about 3:20 p.m. Saturday while hiking over the hills two miles south-east of the city's gravel pit.

Annual Meet of Winfield W.I. Reviews Active Year

WINFIELD, Oct. 18.—The Winfield Women's Institute held their annual meeting in the Community Hall on Wednesday, October 6, under the direction of the Red Cross.

Officers were elected for the ensuing year, the slate including: Mrs. D. Reirwig, president; Mrs. T. D. O. Duggan, vice-president; Mrs. J. Swaisland, secretary; Mrs. L. Clement, treasurer, and Mrs. A. Arnold.

The Home Economics group, convened by Mrs. A. Arnold, held an auction sale of home cooking to raise funds for the Institute.

Mrs. Beck of the Handicraft Committee, will make their report later.

The Institute made donations to the Kelowna Ladies' Hospital Auxiliary, the Solarium, the flood relief fund and canvassed for funds for the Red Shield Appeal.

The Ainsley Institute in England was adopted by the local group. Parcels were sent and members corresponded.

Five European children have been cared for through aid from the Institute.

Swimming classes were sponsored

SCREEN FLASHES

When you have Judy Garland and Gene Kelly singing, dancing and making love to the songs of Cole Porter—you have a head start on a prize film musical!

This proves to be the case with Hollywood's newest and most splendid musical offering, "The Pirate," outstanding attraction on the Capitol screen tonight, Friday and Saturday.

There are color, trigger-quick drama, laughter and song in every episode of "The Pirate" as it unfolds its imaginative tale of Manuella, dreaming of the legendary pirate Macoco, but on the verge of marrying the rich but old and paunchy Don Pedro.

The tense drama which is due to open at the Capitol Theatre for three days on Monday, is a story that is 100 percent audience entertainment. It is highlighted by one of the most exciting climaxes seen this season.

Co-starring in "Sleep, My Love" are Claudette Colbert, playing a strong dramatic role for a change, Robert Cummings in a straight romantic part, and Don Ameche cast in an unusual "heavy" role for the first time in his distinguished film career. In top featured spots are such fine players as George Coulouris, Rita Johnson, Ralph Morgan and Hazel Brooks.

Hard-fisted action abounds in the new drama, "The Big Punch," which stars Wayne Morris and two newcomers, Lois Maxwell and Gordon MacRae, opening tonight, Thursday, and continuing Friday and Saturday at the Empress Theatre.

Morris participates in some neat stunts in the drama which moves from a college campus to the pulpit in a small town. There is also a running thread of underworld violence in the tale.

Red-blooded drama, delivered in the traditional Roy Rogers manner, is in the offing for movie fans at the Empress Theatre where the "King of the Cowboys" latest picture, "Under California Stars," photographed in sparkling Trucolor, is scheduled to open a three day run tonight, Thursday.

Blazing with the excitement of flashing steel wielded by hot-tempered swordsmen with revenge in their hearts, and thrilling with the high romance of a reckless rogue and a woman whose smile sets off a Parisian scandal, "Meet Me At Dawn," starring William Eythe, is scheduled to open Monday for a three day run at the Empress Theatre.

With a plot involving a lady author who joins up with a burlesque troupe to get material for her new novel, "Linda Be Good," bright new comedy with a burlesque background, opens Monday at the Empress Theatre.

Featured in the production numbers are two new songs, "Linda Be Good" and "My Mother Says I Mustn't," with Hollywood's lovely "Cameo Girls" featured in the chorus line.

Health Unit in Visit to Trinity Valley Schools

TRINITY VALLEY, Oct. 19.—Dr. E. W. R. Best and Miss Margaret Whillans, of the North Okanagan Health Unit at Vernon, visited the Trinity Valley School last Wednesday. The children were examined and several were given immunization. This service was much appreciated by the parents, several of whom were present.

On Saturday, Mrs. Harry Worth Sr., returned to her home. For the past five months she has been receiving medical attention, and is now improving in health.

The annual school meeting was held at the school on Sunday afternoon. Inspector A. S. Towell, T. R. Bulman and P. S. Sterling, all of Vernon, were present, accompanied by W. J. McIntyre, of Lumby, and Mrs. E. S. Reinhard, secretary-treasurer of Vernon School District No. 22.

The proposed school bylaw was thoroughly discussed. Mrs. Henry Pow was elected representative for the coming year.

Mrs. Harvey Worth and Mrs. Frank Pow, Sr., of Vernon, visited in the valley Monday.

A. Hewlett is spending a few weeks visiting in Saskatchewan centres.

Mrs. Leonard Blake has returned from the Vernon Jubilee Hospital with her infant son, Raymond.

Auction Sale at Lavington Nets $1,000 to Community

LAVINGTON, Oct. 18.—The auction sale on Thursday of last week, held in the Memorial Hall at Lavington, and dance in the evening, in aid of the Community Hall fund, were a great success. A report handed in shows a sum of just over $1,000 netted in the day's proceedings.

Stan Hunt, auctioneer, of Vernon, volunteered his services for the sale, and everything was sold. This included apples, pears, farm produce of all kinds, and farm implements, all donated. There was a much better turnout than ever before, and members of the committee are being complimented on their splendid day.

Stephen Freeman, chairman for the canvassing of donations, with the assistance of his three helpers in this work, were congratulated on their individual work, as the success of the sale was largely due to their efforts.

The young people enjoyed the games from 8 p.m. to 10 p.m. in the evening, then a very good crowd turned up later for the dance. The Okanagan Mountaineers supplied snappy music and the ladies of the community again excelled themselves with dainty refreshments.

Everything went off well, showing what co-operation can do in a small community. There was not a single hitch in the whole day's proceedings.

The lucky ticketholder for the turkey was Miss Ruby Kruezer, who is now in Calgary, and the winner of the food hamper was Mrs. Owen Karn, of Vernon.

All the pupils of the Sunday School and their teachers at-
